Dear Helen,

Just wanted to send along copies of the information I received from the woman I wrote on the Keeney line. Apparently she has some disagreement with the author whose book she sent copies of, on the direct line, but at least we have more to go on now.

Also I had a very brief note from a man who has done work on the Goslee line. He says Mary Fox's parents were Richard Fox and Bethiah Smith and that Bethiah was the daughter of Richard Smith and Rebecca Treat. But no sources or dates were given. I plan on writing him again to see if he's willing to give me more information.

Keep in touch. Nice to hear from you!

Sincerely,
Laurie

FOREWORD

The writer became inspired to research the Keeney family after a nephew became curious about his family during his high school years. The search for information has been exciting and has almost become an obsession. The National Archives in Washington have become familiar territory and scores of persons in county court houses have been more than helpful. Files at the state archives of West Virginia, Virginia and Kentucky have also been invaluable.

This volume no doubt contains many mistakes in dates and in spellings, all unavoidable. Microfilms of records of the late 1700s and 1800s are many times less than perfect and the handwriting of record keepers before the advent of typing leaves room for much interpretation. Much of is is almost illegible.

One big problem is the Keeney name. In every generation it has been misspelled to the point of mutilation. Some recorders must have written what they thought they heard instead of trying to get correct spellings.

Alex Haley, speaking to 10,000 of us in Minneapolis in 1977, admonished us to write our family histories. We may not leave much to those who follow us, but the least we can do for them is to help them know who they are.

It is confidently hoped that this will serve as a resource guide for many and that the mistakes can be overlooked.

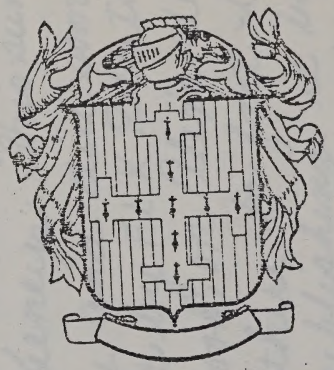
Coat of Arms



Historiography

The Keeney Coat of Arms was drawn by an heraldic artist and documantation is supposedly found in Burke's General Armory.

The surname Keeney appears to be both patronymical and characteristic in origin and is believed to be associated with the Irish, meaning "grandson of Cianch or of Keene (sharp, quick, eager person)." Dictionaries of surnames indicate probable spelling variations of Keeney to be Keeny, Kean, Krany, Keaney, O'Keany, O'Keeney, Keenie and others.

The name Keeney has been established in history. William Keeney was at Gloucester, Massachusetts, before 1640. He removed to New London, Connecticut in 1651 and died there in 1675. Alexander Keeney was made a freeman at Wethersfield, Connecticut, in 1667 and died there in 1680.

Keeney

Russell Watson Keeney (1897-1958) served in the 85th Congress as a representative from Illinois. Arthur Hall Keeney (b. 1920) is an American ophthalmologist and an expert on eye diseases. Sir Benjamin Keeney (Keene) was an English diplomat who arranged the Treaty of Seville in November 1729; by this treaty a defensive alliance was concluded between England, France and Spain. Edmund Keeney (1787-1833) was a famous Shakespearian actor, who played the roles of King Lear, Othello, Richard III, Hamlet and Macbeth. William Keeney (1837-1932) was a United States Army surgeon during the Spanish-American and Civil wars.

Another source says that the name Keeney comes from the Anglo-Saxon word meaning bold and warlike or from the Welsh-Cornish word (Ceann) meaning chief or head. The word ending (ey) in Scandinavia meant island and in the Norman-French language meant water.

The misspelling of the name has been most characteristic in America. The same person has been found in various records with name spellings of Keeney, Keney, Kinney and other variations. County clerks and census takers have taken their own liberties in guessing at the spelling of the name, hence the great difficulty in doing research.

There is little doubt that Keeneys who came to America, for the most part, came from Ireland, but records show that they had previously come to Ireland from other parts of Great Britian.

Dear Mrs. Grimes,

I received your letter today about Jerusha Keeney Andrews. I am enclosing some information which I feel shows she is Alexander's g. grand-daughter who also is my ancestor. Since I placed my Root Cellar ad I have found more information on the Keeneys. This summer I also visited Salt Lake City and did some research there. I have a book by F.L.K. Robertson on the Keeneys, but the book on Alexander Keeney I haven't found either. In fact I believe she planned on publishing it but never did. Nevertheless, I have a standing order for it at a few bookshops.

On to your genealogy, Alexander b. 1625-34 at King's Lynn (Norfolk CO) England, emigrated @1659 Wethersfield CT m. 1660 or 1661 Alice Colfax widow of William. They had 7 children including my ancestor Richard and Joseph, who I believe is yours. Alexander died October 1680 leaving minor children. (He was a freeman and landowner in Withersfield). Alice Keeney d. 23 Feb, 1683 in Wethersfield. Alexander's father was either Thomas or John according to sources, but he definitely was born at King's Lynn. His mother may have been Sarah Cheever. Joseph married Hannah Hills and had at least 9 children. They lived in East Hartford CT along with my ancestor Richard. One of their children was Alexander (1707-1814??) BOGUS! who married Mabel Roberts or Eunice Fox House. (I wonder about the last one because my ancestor married secondly a Eunice Fox House!) He may have married twice as well. He had several children. A Thomas is named but Jerusha probably fits here, since you mentioned Alexander and ~~the~~ a source definitely says she is a descendant of Alexander (d. 1680) through Joseph. (The book by FLK Robertson states this.)

Yes, Simon Keeney Sr. and Jr. are my ancestors
nd they settled in Fabius about 1795 - John Keeney was b. there 1797 "first white child b. in Keeney Settlement." One of his (John) descendents married a descendent of Jerusha's. Actually there probably are more.

I am enclosing my line of descent for your nformation. If you track down further information n Alexander I'd be happy if you'd share it with me.

Sincerely, Jean Keeney Roller

CHAPTER 18

KEENEY FAMILY

B SIR THOMAS KINNE
Baronet of King's Lynn, co Norfolk, England.

The original Kinne Coat of Arms: The letter on the original reads: By the name of Kinne, granted and confirmed 4 Oct 1618, to Sir Thomas Kinne of Norfolk and his discendants of the name."

The English spelling for several hundred years privious is simply KENE, and the Milesian spelling, "CINEADH" (d is silent), for instance, "CIL-CINEADH": Kil Kenney. Cel Hall was the home of Cineadh or Kennee. This CINEADH was the first written form of the family name as yet found.

A son of Sir Thomas Kinne:

A JOHN KENY
b ca 1600 m Sarah Cheever

Their sons, included:

HENRY b 8 July 1623, King's Lynn bpt 3 May 1624 Leyden, Holland where his parents had gone to escape religious persecution, as they were Puritans. Settled in Salem, MA d 19 June 1696, Newbury m Ann (_______)

His name first appears in Roxbury, 21 June 1639, when Henry Kenninge, apprenticed to Wm. Park by Vincent Potter, who was presumably a relative, and who brought him from Holland in May 1635, by way of London on ship "Elizabeth and Ann", which sailed for the New World 29 Apr of that year.

The name appears in early colonial records under various spellings: KENY, KENE, KINNE, KEYNEY, KEENEY, KENNEE, KINE, KENNE, etc. In a deed given by Henry Kinne, the name is spelled six different ways in the same document.

As Henry Keny he appears in Ipswich, MA records in 1648. In Salem vital records, his name appears twice as Kenney; as signor of a court petition in Salem Village, 10 Oct 1667, as Henry Keine; on the church roll of founders who voted 26 Dec 1672 to build a meetinghouse, as Henry Kenny; and in various forms in other Salem records and the documents of Boston State House, but usually as Kinne or Kinney.

He was a planter in Salem, now Danvers, Essex County, MA, as early as 1648. The site of his house is within the location of Boston and Newburyport Turnpike, about mid-way between Preston and Nichols streets. It was known as "The Henry Kinne House". About sixty acres of surrounding land was conveyed to him 26 Feb 1661. This house was destroyed by fire in 1686. He was a very religious man and officiated at church services.

Henry was a soldier under Major Segwick about 1654 at the taking of St. John from the French. He was at the capture of Fort Narragansett with Capt. George Curwin's Co., 3 Dec 1673.

He drew pay 24 Jan 1676 for military service. Podge, in his "Soldiers in King Philip's War", gives his name under the following dates: 29 Feb 1676, 24 July and 23 Sept of that year and 24 Apr 1677 as "of Salem Town". He and son, Thomas were both at Mt. Hope during King Philip's War.

b ca 1625-34, probably England d 1680 (Estate inventoried 1 Oct 1680) Wethersfield m at least once to Alice (______), widow of William Colfax of Wethersfield, in ca 1661. (Public records of Colony of CT 2:520) Freeman of Wethersfield 1667. Alice Colfax Keeney's children by her first marriage included: John, March and Jonathan Colfax, born between 1654 and 1658 in Wethersfield.

His name first appears in the Wethersfield Town Records in March 1666/7, when he was granted a piece of land for a home lot on the west side of Midd, road, a little below Goffe's Bridge. He drew land in 1670 allotment.

Alexander's name was on a petition in May 1682 by inhabitants of Wethersfield to the General Court for "liberty to erect a plantation in the Wabaquassit country". This was in the vicinity of the present Township of Woodstock; the tract asked for was an area of ten square miles. The tract was so far north that the petitiones were in doubt whether it would partly fall within the jurisdiction of Massachusetts, whose south line was then in doubt. The Wethersfield men did not take up the tract, and it was, in 1684 bought by Capt. James Fitch, or Norwich, from the Indian Oweneco.

He died in 1680 and according to Hartford County Probate Records, the inventory was taken 15 Oct of that year by Nathaniel Boreman and John Wolcott. The amount of the estate was estimated at £86:06:00.

The estate was to be left with the widow until the children should come of age (Court Records, 2 Dec 1680); in 1682 the Town paid for the schooling of two of the children. His eldest son, Alexander received from the Town, in 1683, a grant of 20 acres of land in present So. Glast.

In the records of the estate, the children were listed by age.

During the Revoluntionary War, he volunteered for several brief tours of duty in the Connecticut Militia. He first enlisted in April 1775, marching to Boston and was stationed there for 7 months discharged in Nov. While he was on this tour of duty, he saw the Bunkerhill Battle and said General Washington visited their station at Roxburyhill, while he was there. He had several short enlistments of two months each in 1776, 1777 and 1778 as Private in the Connecticut Militia.

According to his application for a pension, he further stated in the year 1780, he removed his family to Wyoming County, PA, having been there six months earlier in the year. The frontier settlements were greatly annoyed by the Indians for a long time after the proclamation of the peace and that the settlers were constantly compelled to take turns on Garrison duty as Indian parties continued to plunder, burn and destroy, that he belonged to a company of young man on minute service whose duty it was to be ready to go at any and every call. He was under the command of a Col. Butler and Capt. Satterlee for eighteen months and were frequently in the pursuit of Indian parties and constantly slept with his arms in readiness to turn out at a moments warning, day or night.

He received his pension (Pension #S 9366) issued 8 Nov 1833. At the time of his application for pension, executed 11 Sept 1832, he was living in Fabius, Onondaga County, NY.

Thomas Kenney settled near Kenney's Ferry, PA (now Laceyville, Wyoming Co., PA). He built a temporary educated in the district schools, and has made agriculture his life vocation. July 24, 1864, he married Beatrice K. Keeney, a daughter of Ransom Keeney, of Middlebury. She was born April 9, 1844, and has had three children, viz: Floyd H., who died at the age of five years; Fred. A., who died at fourteen years of age, and Roy, who died in infancy. In politics, Mr. Goodwin is a stanch Democrat.

Thomas Keeney was born in Hartford, Connecticut, September 28, 1776, the eldest of two sons born to Thomas Keeney, Sr., the younger one being Jesse. His father was a native of Scotland, born May 21, 1751, and came to America prior to the Revolution, serving under Washington during that struggle for liberty. Thomas spent his early life in his native place, whence he removed to Onondaga county, New York, and in the autumn of 1815 came to Tioga county, Pennsylvania, and purchased a large farm on Crooked creek, in Middlebury township. Here he spent the remaining years of his life, dying September 1, 1853. He married Anna Parshall, who bore him nine children, viz: Mercy, Israel P., Elijah, Elisha, Jesse, and Alvira, all of whom are dead; Ransom, of Middlebury township; Anna, deceased, and Thomas, a resident of Middlebury. Mrs. Keeney died February 28, 1827, aged forty-nine years. Mr. Keeney was a deacon in the Baptist church.

Israel P. Keeney, eldest son of Thomas and Anna Keeney, was born in Onondaga county, New York, in 1802, and was thirteen years old when the family came to Tioga county. Here he grew to manhood, and made farming his life vocation. His wife, Clarinda, was a daughter of Aaron Niles, and bore him a family of eleven children, as follows: Henry S., of Middlebury; Ruth, who died in infancy; Ruth A., wife of Daniel Holiday; Mercy, deceased wife of Benjamin Starkey; Alvira and Clarinda, both deceased; Deborah, deceased wife of Samuel Hayes; Mary, wife of Joseph Brown, of Lawrence township; Henrietta, wife of O. D. Whitcomb; Delia, deceased wife of Orrin West, and Lafayette, deceased. Mr. Keeney and wife were members of the Baptist church, in which he filled the office of deacon. He died at Middlebury Center, March 11, 1886, and his wife, August 12, 1885, aged eighty-seven years.

Henry S. Keeney, eldest child of Israel P. Keeney, and grandson of Thomas Keeney, was born in Middlebury township, Tioga county, January 1, 1824. He was reared upon the homestead, and assisted his parents on the farm until he was twenty-two years of age, when he began working out as a farm hand and mill man. May 11, 1845, he married Zunilda Whitney, a daughter of Jeremiah Whitney. She was born August 7, 1826, and is the mother of six children, as follows: Loren D., who died at the age of eleven; Calista S., wife of Ephraim Thomas, of Mansfield; Van Buren, of Chatham township, who married Sarah Short, who has had five children: Frankie, deceased, Hattie, Vola, Olen and Stella; Ruth A., wife of Clark Sweet, of Middlebury; Henry S., a carpenter of Middlebury Center, who married Katie Badman, and has three children, Leah, Eva and Seymour B.; and Flora A., wife of Thomas B. Bolton, a resident of Middlebury Center. In September, 1864, Mr. Keeney enlisted in Company G, Two Hundred and Seventh Pennsylvania Volunteers. He was soon afterwards taken sick, and in May, 1865, was discharged at Philadelphia because of disability. Politically, he is a Republican, and both he and wife are members of the Free Will Baptist church.

Jesse Keeney, youngest son of Thomas Keeney Sr., was born in Hartford, Connecticut, September 28, 1778, being exactly two years younger than his brother Thomas. His father was a native of Scotland, born May 21, 1751, and came to America prior to the Revolution, serving under Washington during that struggle for liberty. Jesse spent his early life in his native place, and married Catharine Middaugh December 29, 1799, subsequently removing to New York state. His wife was born September 13, 1781, and bore him the following children: Elias, Sarah, Thomas, Permelia, Jesse, Abram S. and Jesse M., all of whom are dead; Caty, wife of Delinas Walker; Mercy, deceased; Richard M., a resident of Farmington township; Ruby and George D., both deceased. Mr. Keeney came to Tioga county in 1831, and located on a farm at Mill Creek, where he died on June 18, 1834. His wife survived him fourteen years, dying August 13, 1848.

George Daniel Keeney, youngest child of Jesse Keeney, was born at Cortland, New York, December 5, 1825, and was six years old when his parents settled in this county. Here he grew to maturity, and in the fall of 1848 located at Keeneyville, where he engaged extensively in lumbering, and purchasd several tracts of land. In 1859 he was commissioned first lieutenant of the Northern Artillery. In 1861 he was appointed postmaster at Keeneyville, and in 1866 was elected a justice of the peace, an office he filled continuously for thirty years. He also served as a school director several terms, and filled other minor offices of his township. He was an ardent Republican, and always gave his support to that party. Mr. Keeney was married August 27, 1848, to Jane A. Drew, a daughter of Deacon John Drew. She was born March 2, 1830, and became the mother of nine children, as follows: Florence A., wife of Prof. F. M. Smith, of Arcade, New York; Agnes E., of Keeneyville; Ernest H., who died at the age of seven; Ida E., wife of Leroy Costley, of Middlebury township; Arthur M., of Keeneyville; Helen J., deceased; Eva G., wife of Elmer E. Guernsey, of St. Paul, Minnesota; Burton L., of Keeneyville, and Myrtle L., who died at the age of twenty-three years. Mrs. Keeney died January 1, 1893. She was for many years a member of the First Baptist church. February 27, 1895, he married, for his second wife, Rachel L. Morse, of Scranton, Pennsylvania. Mr. Keeney died February 11, 1896. He was a consistent member of the First Baptist church; was also connected with the K. of H., and was one of the oldest and most respected citizens of the community.

Arthur M. Keeney was born at Keeneyville, June 21, 1859, and is the oldest living son of George D. Keeney. He was educated in the Keeneyville graded school, and is now engaged in the retail meat business. On October 3, 1879, he married Laura Wedge, a daughter of Samuel Wedge, of Middlebury township, and has three children: Maude, Harry and Ethel. The last mentioned was given to her uncle, Henry Wedge, at her mother's death, which occurred March 31, 1893. Mr. Keeney is a member of the First Baptist church, also of the I. O. O. F., the K. O. T. M., and the P. of H. societies. In politics, he is a Republican, and one of the well-known business men of Keeneyville.

Burton L. Keeney, youngest son of George D. Keeney, was born at Keeneyville, Tioga county, October 20, 1866, and received his education at the Keeneyville High School and the State Normal School, Mansfield. He also graduated in stenography from Barnes' Shorthand College, St. Louis, Missouri, and practiced as a professional stenographer for five years in Keokuk, Iowa, and St. Paul, Minnesota, and also in the courts of Tioga county. April 3, 1895, he married Luella P.

ing occupied by others in the meantime about ten years. On his repurchase of it in 1848 he much enlarged and improved it. The house was included in the general conflagration of the 9th of February 1871, and the site of it is now the vacant lot lying between the Wickham block and the residence of John W. Guernsey.

James Goodrich died March 22nd 1879, and his wife Deborah A., born August 15th 1797, died January 26th 1868. Their son James jr., born November 9th 1822, died May 14th 1869. All are buried in lot 10, section A, Evergreen cemetery. A son John Joseph was born October 10th 1828, died November 18th 1829, and was buried in the northwest corner of a lot two rods square reserved by Captain James Goodrich in his gift of the old cemetery ground to the supervisors of the township. This grave was the first one made in said cemetery.

The children of James and Deborah Goodrich are, in order of birth: William Augustus, born July 31st 1816, and Edwin Constant May 6th 1818, both in the town of Painted Post, Steuben county, N. Y.; Sarah Eliza, born April 27th 1820; James jr., November 9th 1822; Henry Harrison, February 28th 1825; John Joseph, October 10th 1828; Harriet Patterson, February 1st 1831; John McLean, December 26th 1833; and Ellen Augusta, June 24th 1840.

Of these, Edwin married Margaret Prutsman, May 28th 1850; Eliza married Colonel James P. Magill, of Philadelphia, December 4th 1845; Harriet married Daniel Watts, November 5th 1855; and John McLean married Harriet Barber, May 8th 1855.

So far in this historical sketch it has been the purpose of the writer to give as faithful a record of the genealogy of the early settlers of Tioga township, and their immediate descendants as it has been practicable for him to obtain. He has been careful and quite extended in this respect, covering a period of thirty years—from 1790 to 1820—bringing to the attention of the present generation names that were fast passing out of recollection, and which properly belong to the field of historical inquiry and research, while the genealogy of the present generation is within their own possession or immediate reach, at least from the latter date down to the present time. He has already included in his pioneer and primitive sketch the names of no less than four hundred persons; and he has done this that there might be a more enduring record of the dead, and of the living who have come properly within the range of this historical sketch, than it is possible for monuments of either brass or stone to give.

CHIEF SETTLERS BETWEEN 1820 AND 1830.

Dr. Pliny Power came and settled for a time with his brother Dr. Simeon Power, both of whom were early settlers in Lawrence township; Simeon, who had been sheriff of the county from his election in the fall of 1815 up to January 1st 1819, settling some three years subsequently on the Benajah Ives or John Prutsman place, Tioga, then removing again to Lawrence. Simeon I. Power, sheriff in 1859-61, was born at Tioga in 1820, during this residence of his father's family here. Dr. Pliny Power married Brittania Gordon, and was resident physician at Tioga up to about 1835, when he removed to Detroit, Mich.; he was at one time a member of the Legislature of that State. Following him in the order of settlement at Tioga, as near as can now be stated, were Henry Van Wey, lumberman and farmer; Elder Amos Mansfield, an occasional preacher, and a farmer, who subsequently moved to Rutland township; Jesse Keeney sen., a wagon-maker, and several sons and daughters; widow Daniels and her three sons James, Harry and Solomon; Joseph Brown, William Patrick, Phineas Stevens, Clement Slate, Clement Couch, Silas Campbell, lumbermen and farmers; Levi and Joseph W. Guernsey, tanners and curriers, the latter subsequently in partnership with Jonah Brewster, his father-in-law, in the store built by them on the site of the Park Hotel; William Garretson; Hobart B. Graves, merchant and distiller; George W. and Rankin Lewis, the latter editor and publisher of the Tioga Pioneer; Eugene Cushman, Elijah Stiles and Christopher Charles, merchants; Dr. Thomas T. Huston, resident physician until about 1835, and brother of Judge Charles Huston, of the supreme bench; M. T. Leavenworth, attorney and counsellor at law, admitted to practice in our courts May 17th 1826; Rev. Elisha Booth, an occasional preacher of the Baptist persuasion, and successor to Lewis brothers in the publication of the Pioneer; George Mix, George A. Gardner and Mr. Pickard, school teacher, the latter marrying a Miss Lamb, sister to William Willard jr.'s wife; George Daniels and Charles Fish, shoemakers; Dean Dutton and Joseph Aiken, farmers; Dr. H. Roberts, at the hotel of James Goodrich, in 1826; Jacob Schieffelin sen., who removed from New York city to Charleston township in 1828, and subsequently to Tioga; and George March, residing on Wellsboro street.

THE KEENEY FAMILY.—Jesse Keeney, one of the foregoing settlers, who has left numerous descendants, living both in Tioga and Middlebury townships, was born September 28th 1778, in Litchfield county, Conn.; removed with his father's family to the east or north branch of the Susquehanna; thence to Chemung township, Montgomery (now Chemung) county, N. Y.; thence to Truxton, Cortland county, and finally, in 1823 or 1824, to Tioga, accompanied first by his eldest son, Elias, and three years subsequently joined by his family. His father, Thomas, born May 21st 1751, was a Connecticut settler; removed his family to the east branch of the Susquehanna River prior to the year 1787, and settled near the mouth of Mehoopany Creek. He was one of the fifteen or eighteen persons concerned in the abduction of Colonel Timothy Pickering, prothonotary of Luzerne county, on the night of the 26th of June 1788, from his residence in Wilkes-Barre, by a forcible entrance of his dwelling, dressed and painted in the costume of Indians. The Keeney family subsequently removed to Chemung; thence to Fabius, Onondaga county, N. Y. Thomas, the grandfather of the present Keeneys of our county, died at the house of his son-in-law, Richard Mitchell sen.,

Tioga, about 1828 or 1830, and was buried in the Mitchell graveyard, but was removed a few years since to Chemung, and there re-buried beside his wife, who had died subsequent to him at the house of their daughter, Mrs. Palmer.

Jesse Keeney the son came to Tioga in 1823 or 1824, and built the wagon shop afterward remodeled into the dwelling house of William Garretson as it at present appears. He here carried on his trade of wagon making several years; then removed to Mill Creek, and built the saw-mill near the site of George Ellis's farm house; thence at a later period to the old Lyman Adams farm, and finally to a house near the mouth of Mill Creek and west of the Williamson road.

Jesse Keeney sen. was born at Litchfield, Conn., September 28th 1778, and died at Tioga, June 18th 1834; his wife—Caroline Middaugh, sister of John Middaugh—was born September 13th 1781, and died at the residence of her daughter Mrs. Brady, August 13th 1848, and both she and her husband are buried in the Mill Creek or Guernsey cemetery. They had children: Elias; Sally Ann, wife of George Daniels; Thomas; Parmelia, wife of Erastus Hill, Waverly; Abram S., born July 11th 1811, married, first, Anna Matilda Mudge, and afterward Sarah Matilda Crandall (sister to Charles Crandall, inventor of the "Crandall blocks"); Jesse M., born September 9th 1813, died January 6th 1882; Catharine, wife of Delinas Walker, both deceased; Mercy, widow of Clinton Brady; Richard, Marsh Creek; George D., Keeneyville; and Ruby, wife of Charles Wilcox. Abram S., who now resides in the village of Tioga, joined the Baptist church in 1831, under the ministry of Elder Sheardown, at the same time that Mary and Almira De Pui joined, and has been deacon of the church about 40 years. Jesse M. Keeney married Mary Ann Fellows, of Sullivan township, and he there joined the Methodist church, of which he was class leader many years, and up to the time of his death. Thomas Keeney jr., who lived at Mitchelltown in 1816, and joined in the organization of the Baptist church there, subsequently moving to Middlebury, was a brother of Jesse sen.

William Garretson.—No person who has ever lived in Tioga, peculiar and singular as the man was in many respects, ever left so strong a remembrance of his individuality and character as William Garretson. No stranger who ever came to the village temporarily, either on business or for observation, and staid sufficiently long to make the acquaintance of its citizens, including William Garretson, went away from it with a stronger and more vivid impression of any individual in it than of the "old 'squire," or "quaint philosopher," as he was termed by friend and stranger in his more advanced years. It is probable, had Mr. Garretson lived in Concord, he would have been in intimate fellowship with Emerson, Alcott and Thoreau, and been a member of their school of philosophy; but as it was, in the place where he lived so many years, his school was specially his own, in which he could only be regarded as a tutor, with never any associates; except, perhaps, for a short period Hiram K. Hill, the village school teacher, during the time when Fourierism flourished—chiefly through the influence of the New York Tribune. This Hiram K. Hill subsequently established the short lived Fourier society at Gaines, this county.

William Garretson was born at Mount Pleasant, Jefferson county, Ohio, October 13th 1801, of Quaker parentage, his mother being a descendant of the Bright family of England, and his grandfather a native of Holland. His elementary education was obtained in his native place, and in his 19th year, filled with a spirit of adventure common to one of that age and to the then frontier country in which he was born, he engaged himself as a hand on an ark loaded with produce for the New Orleans market, and floated down the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers to that city. Remaining there but a short time he proceeded to Mobile, where he made the acquaintance of Moses Austin, subsequently commodore of the Texan navy and president of that republic. Coming north through Georgia and the Carolinas he at length arrived at Alexandria, Va., where he taught school for a season in the year 1820. Thence he went to Lewisburg, York county, Pa., where he studied medicine with Dr. Webster Lewis, and also law, probably with Ellis Lewis, brother of Dr. Lewis, remaining there from the fall of 1821 to the summer of 1825. In September of the latter year he settled at Wellsboro, as also did Ellis Lewis, either at the same time or nearly contemporaneously, each establishing himself as a practicing attorney and counsellor at the bar, Mr. Garretson's office being in the prothonotary's office, and Ellis Lewis's one door west of the commissioners' office, on Main street. Here Mr. Garretson remained in practice until February 1827, when he removed to Tioga, or "Willardsburg," as it was then more generally termed. His old friend Ellis Lewis, receiving about the same time the appointment of deputy district attorney of Lycoming county, removed to Williamsport, where in time he received the appointment of attorney general of the State, January 29th 1833; was elected associate judge of the supreme court in the fall of 1851, and became chief justice of that court January 5th 1855.

Mr. Garretson was admitted to practice at the several courts of Tioga county September 13th 1825; in the district court of the United States for the western district of Pennsylvania October 3d 1831; in the supreme court of Pennsylvania for the middle district, at Sunbury, June 20th 1832. In the spring of 1826 he was elected second lieutenant of the Wellsboro artillery, and commissioned by Governor Schultz for said office the 8th of May of the same year, his term of office to expire August 31st 1828. He was appointed by the brigadier-general of the second brigade ninth division of Pennsylvania militia his aide-de-camp, and commissioned as such by Governor Schultz August 3d 1828, to serve until August 3d 1835. The 8th day of March 1831 he was appointed and commissioned by Governor George Wolf justice of the peace for district number four, composed of the township of Tioga and part of Lawrence, to hold con

KEENEY FAMILY

B SIR THOMAS KINNE
Baronet of King's Lynn, co Norfolk, England.

The original Kinne Coat of Arms: The letter on the original reads: By the name of Kinne, granted and confirmed 4 Oct 1618, to Sir Thomas Kinne of Norfolk and his discendants of the name."

The English spelling for several hundred years privious is simply KENE, and the Milesian spelling, "CINEADH" (d is silent), for instance, "CIL-CINEADH": Kil Kenney. Cel Hall was the home of Cineadh or Kennee. This CINEADH was the first written form of the family name as yet found.

A son of Sir Thomas Kinne:

A JOHN KENY
b ca 1600 m Sarah Cheever

Their sons, included:

HENRY b 8 July 1623, King's Lynn bpt 3 May 1624 Leyden, Holland where his parents had gone to escape religious persecution, as they were Puritans. Settled in Salem, MA d 19 June 1696, Newbury m Ann (______)

His name first appears in Roxbury, 21 June 1639, when Henry Kenninge, apprenticed to Wm. Park by Vincent Potter, who was presumably a relative, and who brought him from Holland in May 1635, by way of London on ship "Elizabeth and Ann", which sailed for the New World 29 Apr of that year.

The name appears in early colonial records under various spellings: KENY, KENE, KINNE, KEYNEY, KEENEY, KENNEE, KINE, KENNE, etc. In a deed given by Henry Kinne, the name is spelled six different ways in the same document.

As Henry Keny he appears in Ipswich, MA records in 1648. In Salem vital records, his name appears twice as Kenney; as signor of a court petition in Salem Village, 10 Oct 1667, as Henry Keine; on the church roll of founders who voted 26 Dec 1672 to build a meetinghouse, as Henry Kenny; and in various forms in other Salem records and the documents of Boston State House, but usually as Kinne or Kinney.

He was a planter in Salem, now Danvers, Essex County, MA, as early as 1648. The site of his house is within the location of Boston and Newburyport Turnpike, about mid-way between Preston and Nichols streets. It was known as "The Henry Kinne House". About sixty acres of surrounding land was conveyed to him 26 Feb 1661. This house was destroyed by fire in 1686. He was a very religious man and officiated at church services.

Henry was a soldier under Major Segwick about 1654 at the taking of St. John from the French. He was at the capture of Fort Narragansett with Capt. George Curwin's Co., 3 Dec 1673.

He drew pay 24 Jan 1676 for military service. Podge, in his "Soldiers in King Philip's War", gives his name under the following dates: 29 Feb 1676, 24 July and 23 Sept of that year and 24 Apr 1677 as "of Salem Town". He and son, Thomas were both at Mt. Hope during King Philip's War.

1 ALEXANDER

b ca 1625-34, probably England d 1680 (Estate inventoried 1 Oct 1680) Wethersfield m at least once to Alice (______), widow of William Colfax of Wethersfield, in ca 1661. (Public records of Colony of CT 2:520) Freeman of Wethersfield 1667. Alice Colfax Keeney's children by her first marriage included: John, March and Jonathan Colfax, born between 1654 and 1658 in Wethersfield.

His name first appears in the Wethersfield Town Records in March 1666/7, when he was granted a piece of land for a home lot on the west side of Midd, road, a little below Goffe's Bridge. He drew land in 1670 allotment.

Alexander's name was on a petition in May 1682 by inhabitants of Wethersfield to the General Court for "liberty to erect a plantation in the Wabaquassit country". This was in the vicinity of the present Township of Woodstock; the tract asked for was an area of ten square miles. The tract was so far north that the petitiones were in doubt whether it would partly fall within the jurisdiction of Massachusetts, whose south line was then in doubt. The Wethersfield men did not take up the tract, and it was, in 1684 bought by Capt. James Fitch, or Norwich, from the Indian Oweneco.

He died in 1680 and according to Hartford County Probate Records, the inventory was taken 15 Oct of that year by Nathaniel Boreman and John Wolcott. The amount of the estate was estimated at ₤86:06:00.

The estate was to be left with the widow until the children should come of age (Court Records, 2 Dec 1680); in 1682 the Town paid for the schooling of two of the children. His eldest son, Alexander received from the Town, in 1683, a grant of 20 acres of land in present So. Glast.

In the records of the estate, the children were listed by age.

b 10 May 1751 East Hartford, CT d 10 Jan 1840 Tioga Co., PA m 10 Jan 1769 Hartford Mercy Lamb b 12 Oct 1748 d ca 1840.

During the Revoluntionary War, he volunteered for several brief tours of duty in the Connecticut Militia. He first enlisted in April 1775, marching to Boston and was stationed there for 7 months discharged in Nov. While he was on this tour of duty, he saw the Bunkerhill Battle and said General Washington visited their station at Roxburyhill, while he was there. He had several short enlistments of two months each in 1776, 1777 and 1778 as Private in the Connecticut Militia.

According to his application for a pension, he further stated in the year 1780, he removed his family to Wyoming County, PA, having been there six months earlier in the year. The frontier settlements were greatly annoyed by the Indians for a long time after the proclamation of the peace and that the settlers were constantly compelled to take turns on Garrison duty as Indian parties continued to plunder, burn and destroy, that he belonged to a company of young man on minute service whose duty it was to be ready to go at any and every call. He was under the command of a Col. Butler and Capt. Satterlee for eighteen months and were frequently in the pursuit of Indian parties and constantly slept with his arms in readiness to turn out at a moments warning, day or night.

He received his pension (Pension #S 9366) issued 8 Nov 1833. At the time of his application for pension, executed 11 Sept 1832, he was living in Fabius, Onondaga County, NY.

Thomas Kenney settled near Kenney's Ferry, PA (now Laceyville, Wyoming Co., PA). He built a temporary shanty on the southwest bank of the Susquehanna River (in Braintrim Township) and in the same year he built a comfortable log house on the opposite bank of the river, and in the following autumn (1786) moved his family into it, thus becoming the first settler in Braintrim Township, west of Skinner's Eddy. His wife and daughter, Mercy, were heroines in several courageous exploites.

Thomas Kenney and his wife returned to New York State in a few years, leaving the farm in possession of Richard Keeney (son of Mark Keeney, SEE THE BEEMAN CHAPTER) and his wife Mercy (dau of Thomas Keeney-4). The Keeney family ran the Keeney's Ferry until a bridge was built at Laceyville.

It would appear from the Town Records that Thomas, Jr. did not go to Kent with his father and family since no real estate is deeded to him nor is there any record of any childrens' births until about 1750. In some thinking with the Beeman ancestors, they thought Thomas, Jr. returned to Preston after his wife died and was buried there.

Thomas took the oath of fidelity at Kent and was a Freeman. He was a Pvt. of the company commanded by Capt. Joseph Carter in Connecticut Militia who marched into the Continental service at New York in August 1776 and were discharged in September.

This would lead us to believe Thomas Beeman, Jr., felt strong about his freedoms on the Western frontier of Connecticut, volunteering for service when he was 61 years old.

It is felt that Mark Keeney is a descendant of Alexander (1) Keny (Keeney) But at this time there is not definite proof to make this connection. So at this place we will give some vital information about him.

MARK KEENEY: son of John Keeney

John:

b June 1712, possibly Glastonbury, Hartford Co., CT and apparently lived there until 1737 when he moved to Stratford, CT, where his children were apparently born. In about 1752, he moved again to Kent where he seems to have stayed the rest of his life, d ca 1774.

John is listed in the land records of Glastonbury, Hartford Co., CT as follows: 1) DB 4:213 12 Nov 1736, where he purchased a tract called Five Miles (100 Acres) from Zephaniah Hollister. 2) DB 4:231 27 June 1737, where John purchased 6 acres and a welling house described as NE part of Mohegan Hills in Stratford, CT from John Mills and exchanged with him the above (1) acreage and then (3) DB 4:414 12 Jan 1741/2 where John Mills paid Zephaniah Hollister for the land (1).

John is listed in Stratford, CT land records: DB 9:69 10 Nov 1745 Daniel Beardslee of Stratford to Jon Keney of Stratford.

John is listed at Washington, Litchfield Co., CT, apparently in the settling of his estate: DB 5:125 #1836, 5/9 part deed of sale to David Whittlesey of real estate of John Keney, dec., by the heirs, Parke and Anna Beeman, Abel and Mary Beeman, John Keney and Ebnr. commencing as office boy and working his way forward, step by step, to the position of senior clerk, and at length to an equal partnership in the business. In 1884 the concern was incorporated under its present style and he was elected its Vice-President. Mr. Kellogg is President of the Co-operative Building Bank of New York, a position formerly occupied by the late Hon. James W. Wyatt, of Norwalk, and among its directors are several prominent Connecticut men including Ex-Governor Lounsbury and the present Lieutenant-Governor of New York, Hon. Timothy L. Woodruff. Mr. Kellogg is also Vice-President of the Bank of Mount Vernon (New York), a Director of the East Chester Bank, and of various other institutions, is one of the managers of the Mount Vernon Hospital and President of the Board of Trustees of the First Methodist Church. His business interests necessitated his removal from Connecticut in 1874, and since that year he has resided in Mount Vernon, New York. The moral and religious institutions of the community in which he lives have in him an earnest and a liberal helper, and the only organization in the Metropolis with which he is said to affiliate is the Hardware Club. Politically he is a Republican. On September 24, 1863, Mr. Kellogg married for his first wife Emily E., daughter of Charles E. and Abigail Ann Disbrow, of Norwalk. They had two sons and two daughters of whom the latter survive: Mildred C., the oldest, married Samuel W. Bertine, October 24, 1893, and has one son, Edwin Wilbur, born August 1, 1897; and the younger daughter is attending the Mt. Vernon High School. His first wife died February 8, 1889, and on January 7, 1891, he married Mary L., daughter of the late William H. Tallmadge, of New Canaan, Connecticut.

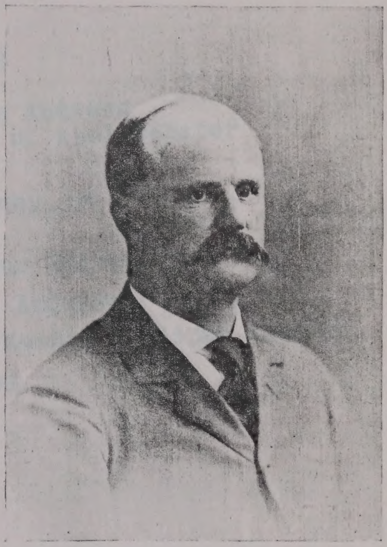
KEENEY, George Edward, of Somerville, Paymaster-General on Governor Cooke's staff, was born in Manchester, Connecticut, March 22, 1849, son of Rockwell and Leonora (Gowdy) Keeney. He is a descendant in the seventh generation of Alexander Keeney, who was made a Freeman in Wethersfield in 1667 and died in 1680, and from him the line is traced through Joseph, Ashbel 1st, Ashbel 2d, and Ashbel 3d, to Rockwell Keeney. George E. Keeney attended the common schools until he was thirteen years old, at which time he began work in a woolen factory, and was thus employed about five years. After a year's course at the Cheshire Military Academy he became associated with his father in the woolen business and has been identified with the trade since 1868. He was a member of the State Senate for the years 1889–90 and 1893–94, was appointed to his present position on the Governor's staff in 1897, and in politics he is a Republican. Mr. Keeney was made a Mason in 1870. On August 13, 1873, he married Ellen Denison of Mystic, Connecticut. They have two children: Elizabeth E., a graduate of Smith College, class of 1897; and Raymond G. Keeney, a student at Yale University, class of 1900.



GEORGE E. KEENEY.

KENT, John Bryden, M. D., Physician and Surgeon, Putnam, Connecticut, was born in Truro, Nova Scotia, November 16, 1845, son of Alexander and Olivia (Archibald) Kent. His paternal ancestors came originally from Alloa, Scotland, settling first in New England and later in Nova Scotia, and his mother's family, the Archibalds, who were English, arrived in that province in 1762, locating in Truro, where she was born. John Bryden Kent attended the public schools, graduated at the Truro Academy, and fitted for college at a private preparatory school for boys. His professional studies were pursued at the Harvard University Medical School, from which he was graduated in 1869. In 1887 he took a private course of practical instruc-

Dear Miss Keeney,

I was given your name and address by your neighbor Ann Ludke.

I have been researching my families and my husband's families for many years. One line that has been a problem for me is the Keeney line.

My husband has Jerusha Keeney b. ca 1735 in Conn. She is suppose to be the daughter of Alexander. She married Elisha Andrews, jr. in Conn. and she died 13 Mar. 1825 in Manchester, Conn.

At least two of their sons: William b. 21 Aug. 1766 m. 3 Dec. 1786 Lucy Gosley and Elijah b. 25 Dec. 1758 m. Mabel Fox - came to Fabius, N.Y. with families. William d. 15 July 1831 at Fabius and Elijah died at the same place 19 June 1826.

Can you give me any information on Jerusha Keeney or her parents?

Dear Helen,

Thanks so much for your letters of May, June and July! And sorry I've been so delinquent in responding. For the past eight weeks I've been devoting all my "spare" time (evenings, after the kids are in bed) to my other hobby--stained glass, in an attempt to build up my inventory of items for a craft show. That was yesterday. Tomorrow we leave for a week at the lake. When I get back, I'll have to work on the custom orders I took at the craft show. Then in three weeks we leave for another week at my husband's home in PA. Then the summer will be over, and maybe things will calm down some. Anyway, genealogy has been on the back burner in the meantime, thru all this--unfortunately, as another genealogy correspondent put it (she has 6 under 12), it's her sanity break, as it is at times for me!

I did want to get back to you on the question you asked--no, I haven't been in touch with Vera Keeney, but she sounds like a promising lead. Also, I'm stumped on the obit you sent. At first, I thought the S.F. was Selden, but he died in 1862, when his mother was 91. And, of course, the other children mentioned don't match with our Lucy's, nor is there another Lucy Andrews that I know of, as I haven't been into the other branches of the family. It's quite a coincidence that two women with the same name, living in the same area, lived to be at least 92, but I've heard of stranger ones, I guess.

So glad you got over to Homer and got a chance to do a little research. It never seems as tho there's enough time to check into every angle, or remember everything that needs to be checked--that happens to me a lot. But at least you made a local contact who might be able to help you even more than the files in the library you forgot to check. So don't be too hard on yourself!

Well, gotta run--there's suitcases waiting to be packed, etc.

Sincerely,
Laurie

P.S. Almost forgot - I took my sister, who was visiting from NY, over to her alma mater - Kent State in Kent & we stopped in Hudson on the way - she student-taught there. We stopped by the Hist. Soc. & found the picture of Lucy - that's really something! Actually, it's too bad the picture is sort of "lost" in their files (it took quite a while to locate it) & it has no meaning for them, since she never lived there. A better place for it might be in an hist. soc. around Fabius, where they might appreciate having a picture of one of their early settlers.

P.S. Almost forgot — I think my sister, [illegible] who

Dear Laurie,

Here are some of the lineages from the DAR books. I didn't find anyone entering from Cortland, as Vera Keeney indicated. There were a couple more, but they had the same, or less, information.

Since you have probably done more work on this line, I'm going to let you decide if these papers are helpful!

I would suppose it would be a good idea to send for Thomas's pension papers. If Jerusha was his sister, she might have given an afidavit to confirm that she knew he served. But, maybe you have tried this already.

I am a bit boggled down with some other lines right now. A few new leads have come up, and I'd like to follow them through while they are fresh in my mind.

I also have a client, and keeping her family straight, along with my own, is a challenge. And I have two students coming every couple of weeks for some "how-to-do" lessons.

If you want me to check for anything at our library, let me know. We don't have a very good N.Y. collection though. I can also check things at Fort Wayne the next time I get over there.

Rev. Soldiers Res. of Dying
Onondaga Co. - Beauch

THOMAS KEENEY—The D. A. R. Lineage book says this veteran was placed on the Onondaga pension list in 1833, for three years actual service in Conn. militia. His wife was Mercy Lamb. He was born in Hartford, Ct., in 1751, and died in Tioga Co., Pa., in 1840, being buried in Chemung, N. Y. In 1790 he was in East Hartford. Here he may have lived in Fabius.

JOHN ROBINSON—This veteran was born in Scotland in 1746, and died in Onondaga Co. in 1833. He married Eunice Wilcox, served in the Revolution, and had a land grant according to the Lineage book. Both surnames are frequent about Baldwinsville, and also elsewhere in the county.

DANIEL SCOVILL—This pensioner of 1840 served in Capt. Hand's Co., Conn., in '76. It is a Pompey and Manlius name and might be assigned to either town.

JESSE TEAGUE—This pensioner's age is not given, but his wife Peggy was 49 in 1820, and there were six younger people in the family; Maria Bayard, their daughter, with infant daughter, Eliza Ann; also William Teague, aged 16; Jemima, 15; Jane Ann, 12, and Elmina, aged 6 years. Mr. Teague was a mason, worth $83.35, and owing but $68. As his creditors were Onondaga and Pompey people he may be assigned to one of those towns. He was probably about 60 years old in 1820, not serving till near the end of the war. He enlisted at Weston, Mass., in Capt. Hill's Co., Col. Jackson's regiment, in May, '81, but was transferred in '82 to Col. Ebenezer Sprout's regiment, and soon after volunteered in Capt. Pritchard's Rangers. This statement does not agree at all with the Mass. rolls, where he seems the one who enlisted from Western, (now Warren) in Capt. Dix's Co., Gen. Patterson's brigade, and who was 21 years old in '80, of a dark complexion, and 5 feet 4 inches high. Two earlier entries—'77 and '78—may be the same person. The old pensioners were seldom accurate in accounts of services, especially in names of officers.

he prospered, and Philo B. Castle, of Pompey, was his administrator, July 30, 1832.

John Ives.—This Connecticut pensioner, living in New York, was 58 years old in 1820, and his wife a year younger. In '77 he enlisted in Capt. Strong's Co., Col. Bradley's regiment, Conn. Line, serving in this 13 months and six days. Then he was transferred to Washington's Life Guard, under Capt. Colfax. For three years he served in this, and was discharged at Morristown, N. J. In 1816 he bought 8 acres of land, paying $80 of the purchase money, but the man of whom he bought went to Ohio insolvent, and without giving him a deed. Thus his remaining property was but $14.37½, while his debts amounted to $4.37½. He was fortunate in having a balance of $10 in his favor. John B. Ives was administrator, April 19, 1844.

Timothy Jerome.—This pioneer was born in 1757, coming from Stockbridge, Mass., to Fabius in 1794, where he was the first supervisor in 1798. In Stockbridge he married Mary Isaacs and her grave is in Oakwood cemetery, Syracuse. The inscription is "The Grave | of | Mary, | Wife of | Timothy Jerome Esq. | Died July 20th 1834. | Aged 80 Years. | To whose memory this stone | was erected by her grandson | George Geddes." Their daughter Lucy married James Geddes, a case of love at first sight. Onondaga's Centennial says he lived on lot 5, in the northern part of the town. "He died May 9, 1802, and was buried in the open square in the center of the village of Pompey, whence the remains were subsequently removed to the cemetery on the high ground east of that village." No stone appears there, and an earlier date has been given, but he subscribed $75 for the proposed Pompey Academy in 1800. His service was in Capt. Elisha Whittlesey's Co., Lieut. Col. Rossiter's 3d Berkshire regiment, '77-'80. John Jerome and James Geddes were administrators, July 6, 1802, and Mary Jerome, June 5, 1807.

David Joy.—This veteran was born in Rehoboth, Mass., July 5, 1754, and died in Fabius March 7, 1813. He served in Capt. Tuttle's Co., Col. Charles Webb's regiment, July 17-Dec. 19, '75, the family having removed to Guilford, Vt., in 1766. There he married Hannah Partridge of that place, in March '76. She was born in Barre, Mass., in 1757, and died in Clarkson, N. Y., April 13, 1830. They settled in Fabius in 1800, where the family became prominent.

Evergreen cemetery. He has a separate stone, with a verse, but on the family monument are his parents' names, dates and ages, both born at East Hartford, where all were resident in 1790. Simeon Kinney, of Hartford, served in Lieut. Col. Canfield's regiment, '81, but this form of the name does not appear in the census of 1790, and is best applied to the son.

Abraham Lansing, | died April 29th. | 1836, | in the 71st Year | of his age. |

VERA A. KEENEY
CUYLER, NEW YORK 13050

Sept. 24, 1985

Dear Mrs. Read,

Ré your letter of Aug. 8 I was surprised to learn that your husband and I are cousins! My mother's maiden name was Andrews and she was a great granddaughter of the William and Lucy Gosley Andrews you mention in your letter. You gave me more exact dates on Jerusha and her son William and dau.-in-law Lucy Gosley than I had had. Also I had not known that Wm. had a brother Elijah. Thank you very much.

Concerning your request for information on Jerusha's father, Alexander Keeney, I can add nothing to what you have except to state that my records show that on my father's side (the Keeney line) the Immigrant Ancestor was Alexander Keeney Sr. (1626-1680). I regret that I do not know the original source of my Keeney information, which came to me from a descendant of the Keeneys who used it to join D.A.R. in Cortland, N.Y.

I am so sorry I was not home the day you called.

Sincerely,

Vera Keeney.

Connecticut Pioneers Went West to Keeney

Five Hartford Men Blazed Trails Thru Wilds from Site of Manlius

BY ELIZABETH PYKE

Back in the spring of 1795, when the "west" was New York state instead of California, five men sold their farms in Hartford, Conn., and went "west" to become the pioneers of Keeney settlement in the wilds of Central New York.

They built log cabins in the valley along the Tioughnioga river, south of the present village of Fabius, and for years none of them went outside this valley to marry.

Some of their descendents will live in old homesteads of Keeney settlement. Others have gone forth to win fame in cities far from the quiet valley where they were born.

Keeney settlement today has a church, a cemetery, and a schoolhouse, as well as several farms. But the log cabins are gone, the old mill and the cheese factory are gone, and Keeney settlement, if not exactly a forgotten village, at least has more glories in its past than in its present.

Cabin Sites Marked

Memories of former days are kept mellow by annual reunions in the venerable Keeney settlement church. Yellow and black historical markers, provided by the state education department, indicate the approximate sites of the pioneer cabins and also the former site of the Webster barn, where the first church of the town of Fabius was organized in 1803.

This barn is still in existence. More years ago than any one can remember, it was moved across the road from its present site to be used as a schoolhouse.

About 60 years ago, it was moved again to be used as a tenant house behind the Webster cabin, first frame house in the valley, built by Eli Webster in 1820. Harry Holl, who lives in the cabin today, says that his grandfather, Edward Holl, moved the barn to this second location.

Few forgotten villages of Onondaga county are as fortunate as Keeney settlement in the matter of having their history preserved.

Compiled History

Mrs. E. B. Whitmarsh, a descendent of the Keeney settlement pioneers and lifelong resident of the tiny community, has compiled a detailed and colorful history.

"The first five men who came to Keeney settlement in 1795," she records, "were Benjamin Brown, Samuel Fox, Simon Keeney, Jr., Jonathan Webster, and Gurdon Woodruff. They were practically one family, since Brown, Fox, and Woodruff had married sisters of Webster, and Mrs. Webster was a sister of Mr. Keeney.

"Early in the summer of 1795, these men, with axes on their shoulders, followed the rough roads as far as Manlius. From there, they followed blazed trees, or blazed their own, to a place three miles south of Fabius.

"They found a man named Bradford rolling up a log house, and brought him out. It was eight miles to the nearest neighbor at Pompey and six to the nearest settlement at what now is Cuyler.

Returned to Connecticut

"They cleared a small bit of land and planted potatoes. This done, they returned to Connecticut, taking about 19 days for the journey. Jonathan Webster died soon after reaching home. His widow later married Nathaniel Bacon, a pioneer of Fabius.

"The other four men with their wives and children and some others, returned to the valley in February of 1796. Simon Keeney, Thomas Keeney, William Andrews, Samuel and Salmon Webster, and perhaps others shared one cabin.

"Some of the women were sure there was not room for them all to sleep, but their husbands said there was room, for they had measured the floor space.

"So, 28 people were sheltered there until each could build his own cabin. They lived on potatoes dug from under the snow and on game and fish, which were abundant.

Slave First to Die

"This first cabin was kept for years for the use of newcomers. Joy, a slave owned by Mr. Keeney, came there, too. He had been promised his freedom on a certain date, but having partaken of too much maple sugar, he died before the date arrived. His was the first grave in the valley.

"I have heard that there was an agreement among these men that whoever found fault with the meals must take over the cooking. One day, Benjamin Brown carelessly remarked that 'this mush is pretty salty,' but saved the situation by adding 'It's all the better for that.'

"John Keeney was the first white child born in this valley, October 16, 1797, and the wedding of Lydia Keeney and Abel Webter was the first marriage.

"There was nothing but a trail thru the valley until 1800, when the road from Cortland thru Fabius to Pompey was surveyed. We hear of Jesse Blanchard shouldering a bag of wheat and walking to Manlius, about 20 miles, to have it ground so the family could have a taste of white bread.

Made Own Cloth

"The pioneers made their own cloth, furniture, and candles. They exchanged maple sugar and potash for the few things which they did not make for themselves.

"In 1803, a Baptist church was organized in Samuel Webster's barn, and meetings were held in various homes and schoolhouses of the town. This was the only church between Pompey and Homer at that time.

"Communion was first administered the first Sunday of May, 1805, by Elder James Bacon. About 1820, a division occurred in the church when some of the members united with the Masons. About 25 members withdrew and subsequently formed the 'Truxton and Fabius church at Keeney settlement.' The meetinghouse afterwards was sold to the Methodists. In 1836 the seceding Baptists built the present Keeney settlement church.

"In the fall and winter of 1853-54, Rev. Simon Peter (Gray,) Methodist Episcopal pastor at Fabius, held special meetings in the Bardeen schoolhouse. This marked the beginning of the greatest revival of a lifetime, and it swept the valley.

"Since 1837, at least 15 ministers have gone out from Keeney settlement: Stephen Porter, Wesley Fox, Eli Beebe, Elizar House, Ruben C. Fox, Warren Fox, James F. Andrews, Seabury Keeney, Anson Webster, Major Haskins, Melville Webster, Olin Webster, DeLana Webster, Bishop Frederick T. Keeney, noted for his service in China, and Howard I. Andrews, present district superintendent of the Syracuse East district of the Methodist Episcopal church."

Harlow B. Andrews, 85, oldest resident of Keeney settlement today, altho he never entered the ministry, helped found the Rescue mission in Syracuse back in 1887.

At least six daughters of Keeney settlement have gone away as preachers' wives. Mary Fox married Major Haskins, Emily Woodruff married DeLana Webster, Lucia Porter becoming the latter's second wife, Mary Keeney married John Smith, Mildred Andrews married Judson Everson, and Eloise Andrews married Harry Woolever, national Methodist Episcopal press representative in Washington, D. C.

Had Postoffice

There once was a postoffice in Keeney settlement. Mrs. Whitmarsh says that "for a few years Keeney postoffice was kept in the home of Jess Whitmarsh and later by Jessie Webster Bogardus. Mail was brought by stage from Cuyler."

Mrs. Whitmarsh concludes her account with a horse story which she declares "Grandfather Alonzo Keeney often told with his characteristic stammer."

"Grandfather, who had a fine young team of which he was very proud, invited his neighbor, Chauncy Stocking, to go for a ride," she relates. "They both were portly men and filled the buckboard wagon. So, when the colts broke and ran, Mr. Stocking jumped out.

"Soon the team got out of control and grandfather also jumped out, and let them go. When Mr. Stocking came up to him, grandfather asked, 'Why did you get out?'

"'To catch the horses,' Mr. Stocking retorted. 'Why did you get out?'

"'To see if you caught them,' replied grandfather."

educated in the district schools, and has made agriculture his life vocation. July 24, 1864, he married Beatrice K. Keeney, a daughter of Ransom Keeney, of Middlebury. She was born April 9, 1844, and has had three children, viz: Floyd H., who died at the age of five years; Fred. A., who died at fourteen years of age, and Roy, who died in infancy. In politics, Mr. Goodwin is a stanch Democrat.

Thomas Keeney was born in Hartford, Connecticut, September 28, 1776, the eldest of two sons born to Thomas Keeney, Sr., the younger one being Jesse. His father was a native of Scotland, born May 21, 1751, and came to America prior to the Revolution, serving under Washington during that struggle for liberty. Thomas spent his early life in his native place, whence he removed to Onondaga county, New York, and in the autumn of 1815 came to Tioga county, Pennsylvania, and purchased a large farm on Crooked creek, in Middlebury township. Here he spent the remaining years of his life, dying September 1, 1853. He married Anna Parshall, who bore him nine children, viz: Mercy, Israel P., Elijah, Elisha, Jesse, and Alvira, all of whom are dead; Ransom, of Middlebury township; Anna, deceased, and Thomas, a resident of Middlebury. Mrs. Keeney died February 28, 1827, aged forty-nine years. Mr. Keeney was a deacon in the Baptist church.

Israel P. Keeney, eldest son of Thomas and Anna Keeney, was born in Onondaga county, New York, in 1802, and was thirteen years old when the family came to Tioga county. Here he grew to manhood, and made farming his life vocation. His wife, Clarinda, was a daughter of Aaron Niles, and bore him a family of eleven children, as follows: Henry S., of Middlebury; Ruth, who died in infancy; Ruth A., wife of Daniel Holiday; Mercy, deceased wife of Benjamin Starkey; Alvira and Clarinda, both deceased; Deborah, deceased wife of Samuel Hayes; Mary, wife of Joseph Brown, of Lawrence township; Henrietta, wife of O. D. Whitcomb; Delia, deceased wife of Orrin West, and Lafayette, deceased. Mr. Keeney and wife were members of the Baptist church, in which he filled the office of deacon. He died at Middlebury Center, March 11, 1886, and his wife, August 12, 1885, aged eighty-seven years.

Henry S. Keeney, eldest child of Israel P. Keeney, and grandson of Thomas Keeney, was born in Middlebury township, Tioga county, January 1, 1824. He was reared upon the homestead, and assisted his parents on the farm until he was twenty-two years of age, when he began working out as a farm hand and mill man. May 11, 1845, he married Zunilda Whitney, a daughter of Jeremiah Whitney. She was born August 7, 1826, and is the mother of six children, as follows: Loren D., who died at the age of eleven; Calista S., wife of Ephraim Thomas, of Mansfield; Van Buren, of Chatham township, who married Sarah Short, who has had five children: Frankie, deceased, Hattie, Vola, Olen and Stella; Ruth A., wife of Clark Sweet, of Middlebury; Henry S., a carpenter of Middlebury Center, who married Katie Badman, and has three children, Leah, Eva and Seymour B.; and Flora A., wife of Thomas B. Bolton, a resident of Middlebury Center. In September, 1864, Mr. Keeney enlisted in Company G, Two Hundred and Seventh Pennsylvania Volunteers. He was soon afterwards taken sick, and in May, 1865, was discharged at Philadelphia because of disability. Politically, he is a Republican, and both he and wife are members of the Free Will Baptist church.

Connecticut, September 28, 1778, being exactly two years younger than his brother Thomas. His father was a native of Scotland, born May 21, 1751, and came to America prior to the Revolution, serving under Washington during that struggle for liberty. Jesse spent his early life in his native place, and married Catharine Middaugh December 29, 1799, subsequently removing to New York state. His wife was born September 13, 1781, and bore him the following children: Elias, Sarah, Thomas, Permelia, Jesse, Abram S. and Jesse M., all of whom are dead; Caty, wife of Delinas Walker; Mercy, deceased; Richard M., a resident of Farmington township; Ruby and George D., both deceased. Mr. Keeney came to Tioga county in 1831, and located on a farm at Mill Creek, where he died on June 18, 1834. His wife survived him fourteen years, dying August 13, 1848.

George Daniel Keeney, youngest child of Jesse Keeney, was born at Cortland, New York, December 5, 1825, and was six years old when his parents settled in this county. Here he grew to maturity, and in the fall of 1848 located at Keeneyville, where he engaged extensively in lumbering, and purchasd several tracts of land. In 1859 he was commissioned first lieutenant of the Northern Artillery. In 1861 he was appointed postmaster at Keeneyville, and in 1866 was elected a justice of the peace, an office he filled continuously for thirty years. He also served as a school director several terms, and filled other minor offices of his township. He was an ardent Republican, and always gave his support to that party. Mr. Keeney was married August 27, 1848, to Jane A. Drew, a daughter of Deacon John Drew. She was born March 2, 1830, and became the mother of nine children, as follows: Florence A., wife of Prof. F. M. Smith, of Arcade, New York; Agnes E., of Keeneyville; Ernest H., who died at the age of seven; Ida E., wife of Leroy Costley, of Middlebury township; Arthur M., of Keeneyville; Helen J., deceased; Eva G., wife of Elmer E. Guernsey, of St. Paul, Minnesota; Burton L., of Keeneyville, and Myrtle L., who died at the age of twenty-three years. Mrs. Keeney died January 1, 1893. She was for many years a member of the First Baptist church. February 27, 1895, he married, for his second wife, Rachel L. Morse, of Scranton, Pennsylvania. Mr. Keeney died February 11, 1896. He was a consistent member of the First Baptist church; was also connected with the K. of H., and was one of the oldest and most respected citizens of the community.

Arthur M. Keeney was born at Keeneyville, June 21, 1859, and is the oldest living son of George D. Keeney. He was educated in the Keeneyville graded school, and is now engaged in the retail meat business. On October 3, 1879, he married Laura Wedge, a daughter of Samuel Wedge, of Middlebury township, and has three children: Maude, Harry and Ethel. The last mentioned was given to her uncle, Henry Wedge, at her mother's death, which occurred March 31, 1893. Mr. Keeney is a member of the First Baptist church, also of the I. O. O. F., the K. O. T. M., and the P. of H. societies. In politics, he is a Republican, and one of the well-known business men of Keeneyville.

Burton L. Keeney, youngest son of George D. Keeney, was born at Keeneyville, Tioga county, October 20, 1866, and received his education at the Keeneyville High School and the State Normal School, Mansfield. He also graduated in stenography from Barnes' Shorthand College, St. Louis, Missouri, and practiced as a professional stenographer for five years in Keokuk, Iowa, and St. Paul, Minnesota, and also in the courts of Tioga county. April 3, 1895, he married Luella P.

Cloos, youngest daughter of Philip T. Cloos. Their daughter, Edytha Luella, was born April 17, 1896. Mr. Keeney is a member of the Baptist church, a charter member of the K. O. T. M., and in politics, a Republican. He devotes his attention to farming.

Edsell Mitchell was born at the mouth of Mitchell's creek, in Tioga township, Tioga county, August 27, 1793, eldest child of Richard and Ruby (Keeney) Mitchell, and is claimed by his descendants to have been the first white child born in this county. In 1816 he came to Middlebury township and located on the present Mitchell farm, where the remainder of his life was passed. He served in the War of 1812, and is one of the well-remembered pioneers. He resided in Middlebury up to his death, August 15, 1870. Mr. Mitchell was thrice married. His first marriage occurred March 26, 1818, to Nancy Hill, born December 27, 1793. She became the mother of seven children, viz: Melissa, deceased; Alonzo and Thomas E., both residents of Middlebury township; Margaret A., deceased; Lorenzo D., a farmer of Charleston; Mercy, wife of G. L. Stevens, of Chicago, and Edsell, deceased. Mrs. Mitchell died August 25, 1829. He was again married in December, 1829, to Nancy Ottison, who bore him five children, viz: Richard, Nancy and Jane, all deceased; William A., of Middlebury, and Harriet, wife of Albert Longbothum, of Mansfield. The mother died September 15, 1844, and he subsequently married Mrs. Margaret Bates, a native of Ireland.

Thomas E. Mitchell, son of Edsell Mitchell, and grandson of Richard Mitchell, was born on his present farm in Middlebury township, Tioga county, April 10, 1822, and attended school in the little log building near his father's home. When twenty-seven years old he rented an adjoining farm, and one year later went five miles into the forest of Charleston township, cut the first tree on a 100-acre tract, cleared it up, and resided thereon for twenty-three years. In 1873 he sold this property and located on his present farm, a part of the old homestead, where he has since lived. Mr. Mitchell was married February 13, 1848, to Zelina Z. Stebbins, a daughter of Orrin and Lydia (Treat) Stebbins. She was born in Eaton, Madison county, New York, March 11, 1829, and came to this county with her mother in 1835. Five children have been born to this marriage, viz: Frances E., who died in childhood; Edgar A., a resident of Montgomery county; Thomas J., and Walter B., residents of Middlebury township, and Lettie Z., who died in early youth. Mr. Mitchell and wife have been life-long members of the Baptist church, and in politics, adherents of the Republican party. While a resident of Charleston township, he served as collector and supervisor, has filled the office of constable in Middlebury, and has always taken quite an active interest in public affairs.

William A. Mitchell, eldest living child of Edsell and Nancy (Ottison) Mitchell, was born where he now resides, in Middlebury township, July 29, 1837. He attended the common schools in boyhood, and was reared upon the homestead farm, where he has spent his entire life, with the exception of five years, from 1870 to 1875, when he was operating a grist-mill at Tioga. He has also operated the McClure mill, near his home, but has devoted his principal attention to farming. Mr. Mitchell has been twice married. On March 16, 1861, he married Helen R. Leete, a daughter of Thomas Leete, who bore him three children, viz: Cora C., who died in childhood; Winfield, a tinsmith in Wellsboro, and Willie E., at home. Mrs. Mitchell died February 3, 1886, and he was again married on September 20,

Dear Helen,

It was nice talking with you this evening. After we hung up, I checked for the William and Lucy gravestone negatives. I don't have them, so my mother must--we used her camera that day . She also has the picture of the Andrews cabin, which, as I said, is much nicer than the photocopy sent me by Selden's descendant, being a lot more clear and in color. So I'll write my mother (she lives in Steuben Co., NY) and have her send the negatives. It might be a couple weeks, but sooner or later, I'll get them to you.

Also, on the Kinney/Keeney (whatever) line--about a year ago I went to the Library of Congress (in Pa. we were about 2 hrs. north of D.C.) and, among other things, I looked up the name Keeney. I found thaT a person by the name of F.L.K. Robertson had written several books on Keeneys and related families. There was one entitled Alexander Keney of Weathersfield, Conn. and Descendants. However, they could not locate it for me. So, our answer might be in print somewhere, if we could locate the book. Also, I have a notation from some information that was in a file that Alexander Keeney of Weathersfield may have been a son of Eunice Loveland and Richard Keeney, b. 1674. This could be the Richard mentioned in the probate action of the Alexander who died in 1680.

This is my line:

Eleazer A.	b. ca. 1831 d. 18 Jan 1895	unmarried

There's a question about Lucy (Goslee) Andrews' date of death. Alfred Andrews gave 21 Sept 1863, but, as you'll see when you get the pictures, the tombstone shows 16 Sept. It's hard to know who to believe. Also, there's a Rev War marker by William's grave and he is mentioned in Beauchamp's 1913 "Revolutionary Soldiers Resident or Dying in Onondaga Co., NY. This is sort of questionable, too--but he would have been 15 or 16 at the very end of the war, so I suppose could have done something. I understand they went off to war pretty young then. But I don't know if anyone has actually found the records to go with the claim. I was told by the Nat'l Archives that there were several Wm. Andrews from Conn. in the war. They said I'd have to search thru them myself. One thing, tho, William's father, Elisha, Jr. was in the war, ~~the~~, at least several descendants have supposed it was this Elisha. He's listed as a private in the First Troop of Conn. Light Dragoons in 1776. I haven't seen the record myself--this was given to me by the descendant of Selden.

I think that's about it for tonight. Again, thanks so much for writing and for all your information.

Sincerely,

Laurie

the three mile lots, from Windsor to Glastonbury. A committee was appointed to inquire into the matter in 1729. The following year the Court empowered a commission to run out the dividing lines between the lots, parallel to the line of the north side of Glastonbury, as it runs the first three miles from the Great River, from the Country Road (Main street) leading from Windsor to Glastonbury, to the eastern end of said lots. The work was to be paid for by such as had their lines run out. The nearly east and west courses of these lines govern the boundaries of our lots to-day, and account for the awkward angles at which the lines of many of our house-lots intersect Main street. Most of the roads running eastward are laid out parallel to these lines. That next north of Gilman's Brook, when surveyed in 1734, was run parallel to the dividing line between Hartford and Glastonbury, although five miles distant from it.

In 1749 the lister for this side, who assessed the property here, became a salaried officer and received five pounds for his pains.

The same year sign-posts were ordered in the towns on both sides the river, for the posting of public notices. And tradition says they were used for purposes less gentle also. The old one in our street knew no softer name than "the whipping post." It was a stout oaken post, about ten inches square, with a rough neck and head, hewed squarely to a point at the top. It was studded with rusty tacks and nails, and nothing but the obduracy of its oaken head and heart had kept it intact for so many years. Several times it rotted off at the surface of the ground, but was set down afresh, its loss of stature giving it an aspect of fresh devotion to the cause of punitive justice in our borders—a sort of new consecration, as though it had just bethought itself to go down on its knees in behalf of society. It stood on the east side of Main street, nearly opposite our present sign-post, in front of the house of the writer. Some among us, who are not yet old, remember when the constable laid the lash across the bare shoulders of offenders bending before this stern but salutary shrine. The progress of the old time "tramp," if he were a vagabond indeed, between these wayside shrines, was no festive march, and he did not linger long in their neighborhood. The remains of the old whipping-post I have described are still preserved by Mr. S. G. Phelps.

The French and Indian war drew from among our citizens a goodly number of martial spirits, who enlisted in Lieut.-Col. John Pitkin's company, of which the muster roll has been found among the papers of Gen. S. L. Pitkin. It is as follows:

"A Muster Roll of Lieut.-Colonel John Pitkin's company, being the second company in the First Regiment raised for the reduction of Crown Point, April, 1755 (in service 28 weeks).

GENEALOGY BOOK NOTES

Genealogy Book Editor, P.O. Box 90, Knightstown, IN 46148

DESCENDANTS OF JOHN AND BENJAMIN ANDREWS Sons of the Immigrants John and Mary, pvt. ptg. 1982, compiled by Helen Hunt Read, 18 pp. in soft binder, typed copy, 8½ x 11. Price: $5 ppd. Available from Helen H. Read, 5711 Vail Ave., Toledo OH 43623.

This family genealogy is explained as concentrating on the John and Benjamin Andrews lines, only touching on others. Coincidental in the lineage is that a descendant of each subject married in 1820. John's descendants are traced to the marriage, then Benjamin's line is brought to the same point.

John and Mary (parents) are traced to birth in Essex, England, dates unknown. They came to Watertown, Mass., in 1640, moved to Connecticut, and were parents of nine children, John being the second, Benjamin the youngest. Descendants are followed into New York State in the early 1800s, and a few into Ohio early this century, in Summit and Lucas counties.

Excerpts from estate papers, notes on land ownership, and occupations add personal interest to the chronological account. A companion booklet, Thirteen Generations of Read's in America, brings the Andrews/Read family down to the present day (same price from same address). —ek

SECOND GENERATION.

BARNES—BRONSON.

1. Farmington.

Mary, eldest daughter of John and Mary the settlers, baptized the 16th of May, 1658; was then fourteen years old. She married Thomas Barnes, and was his second wife. He died, when 2d she married about 1682, ——— Bronson; she was mentioned in her father's will, dated 1681, as his daughter Mary Barnes, and received a portion of his estate, but her mother, 1683, two years later, calls her Mary Bronson, and gave her by that name several articles of bedding and clothing.

2. Hartford.

John Andrews, Jun., eldest son of John the settler. He lived in Hartford; married Elizabeth———; had land on Connecticut river, and is called on the record of it John Andrus, son of John Andrus, of Farmington, 20th March, 1676–7; also one piece of land sold him by Gregory Winterton, lying in the ox pasture, 10 acres more or less, and is bounded on the highway leading to Wethersfield, on the west, on John Cole's land on the south, and on Thomas Marshal's land on the north, and on land of John White, east. He the said Andrews is to maintain the fence belonging to 16 acres of said Winterton's land lying in the south meadow, in consideration; 15th Feb. 1698–9 he was administrator of the insolvent estate of his deceased son Joseph, who is spoken of in his grandfather's will as living then, 1681, with him in Farmington. Joseph's estate was only £9 11*s.* 11*d.* and his father was allowed by the probate court for this service 10 shillings. He died before 1713, aged about 78. In consequence of very limited records of the town of Hartford at this early period, little is found concerning its inhabitants. The name of John Andrus' wife does not appear.

CHILDREN OF JOHN, JUN.

10. John, born	married 23d April, 1702, Hannah Gillet, of Hartford.
11. Hannah, born	1713, quit for a consideration to her brother John all her interest in her father's estate.
12. Joseph, born	died about 1698, unmarried, estate settled by his father.
13. Esther, born	1713, quit for a consideration to her brother John all her interest in her father's estate.
14. Stephen, born	married 29th March, 1705, Sarah Gillet, of Hartford.

3. Farmington and Waterbury.

Hannah, second daughter of John and Mary, the settlers, married about 1666, Obadiah Richards, son of Thomas, of Hartford, and lived in Waterbury; he died there November 11th, 1702; his inventory £148 18*s.*; names of the children, John, Obadiah, Thomas, Benjamin, Mary, Han-

Andrews—Andrus

1. JOHN ANDREWS was the immigrant ancestor. He was born in England, probably Essex County, about 1616. He died at Farmington, Connecticut shortly before 2 March 1681/2. He married Mary (   ) who died in May 1694.

John was an early settler in Farmington, Connecticut and was one of the 84 proprietors of the ancient town of Tunxis--afterwards called Farmington. It was excellent farming land as the Tunxis River overflowed its banks every year making rich meadows and plenty of hay for stock. John Andrews was a large landowner and farmer. He joined the Congregational Church where his children were baptized. He was made a Freeman in Hartford, Connecticut on 20 May 1658. He left a large estate. [Andrews, Alfred-Andrews Memorial 1872 49-55]

It is possible that John had a wife previous to Mary by whom he had three children as they were not baptized with the other children and Mary in 1654. They were baptized when John joined the church in 1658.

Children of JOHN and MARY (   ) ANDREWS:
(except possibly the first three)

i Mary born 1643; married (1) Thomas Barnes; (2) (   ) Bronson

2 ii John iii Hannah born 26 February 1647; married Obadiah Richards
iv Abraham born 31 October 1648
v Daniel born 27 May 1649
vi Joseph born 26 May 1651; married Rebecca (   ) vii Rachel born 1654; married Ezekial Buck viii Stephen born 1656; died young ix Benjamin born 17 June 1659

2. JOHN ANDREWS (JOHN[1]) was born 12 August 1645 at Farmington, Connecticut. He died, probably, at Hartford, Connecticut before 1713. He married about 1668 Elizabeth Strickland, daughter of Thwaite and Elizabeth (Shepard) Strickland. She was born at Dedham, Massachusetts 31 March 1647.

John lived in Hartford, Connecticut and owned land on the Connecticut River and in several other nearby places. On 10 October 1686, seven children of John Andrews of Roke Hill were baptized at the second Church of Hartford, and an eighth, Benjamin, on 27 January 1688/9.

Children of JOHN and ELIZABETH (STRICKLAND) ANDREWS:

3 i John ii Joseph born about 1672; died at Hartford before 15 February 1698/9
iii Elizabeth, living 1686

iv Daniel, living 1686
v Stephen born about 1680; married Sarah Gillet vi Abraham
vii Hannah born before 10 October 1686
viii Benjamin bapt. 27 January 1688/9
ix Esther born about 1691

[Jacobus, "The American Genealogist" vol. 35 April 1959 83-86]

3. JOHN ANDREWS (JOHN^2, JOHN^1) was born about 1670 and died at Hartford, Connecticut between 1739 and 1749. He married at Hartford on 23 April 1702 Hannah Gillet, daughter of Elias and Sarah (Griffin) Gillet. She was born at Simsbury, Connecticut on 9 December 1683.

On his father's death, John purchased the interests of his brother Stephen and his sisters, Hannah and Esther. This was land west of the Connecticut River.

Children of JOHN and HANNAH (GILLET) ANDREWS:

i Jonathan born 25 November 1703; probably died young ii Elizabeth born 17 February 1705/6; married (   ) Carpenter
iii Abigail born 21 February 1707/8; married (   ) Richards

4 iv Asahel

4. ASAHEL ANDRUS (JOHN^3, JOHN^2, JOHN^1) was born 2 December 1711 at Hartford, Connecticut. He was baptized 9 December 1711. His date of death is not known but it was after 1758. He married Esther Butler, daughter of William and Hannah (Hills) Butler of Wethersfield. (See Butler genealogy as sources differ on which Esther Butler she was.) She was born 6 April 1712 at Wethersfield, Connecticut.

Asahel was a blacksmith and located near Rocky Hill which was probably once part of Wethersfield. His name appears several times in records of transactions of land. He gave a deed of land lying in Hartford, 1758, and dated and signed in Simsbury and says the land once belonged to his father John and also to his grandfather, John Andrews.

Children of ASAHEL and ESTHER (BUTLER) ANDRUS:

5 i William ii Richard married Catharine Messenger of Simsbury iii Hezekiah married Mary Moses iv Asahel married Phebe Slater
v Hannah married Michael Humphrey of Simsbury vi Isaac died young.

5. WILLIAM ANDRUS (ASAHEL^4, JOHN^3, JOHN^2, JOHN^1) was born at Hartford, Connecticut, but he moved to Simsbury, Connecticut with his father about 1752. He died 28 July 1823, age 87 so was born 1735/6. He married Ruth Humphrey, daughter of John and Lydia (Reade) Humphrey of Simsbury. She was born 1729/30 and died 7 November 1823.

Children of WILLIAM and RUTH (HUMPHREY) ANDRUS:

i William born 9 June 1757;
married Rosetta Case
6 ii Jonathan
iii Butler born January 1767;
married Joanna Case
iv Ruth married Elisha Harrington
v Anna (See Appendix)
vi Elisha born about 1761

6. JONATHAN ANDRUS (WILLIAM^5, ASAHEL^4, JOHN^3, JOHN^2, JOHN^1) was born at Simsbury, Connecticut on 1 February 1760 and died at Simsbury on 13 April 1837. On 6 February 1785, he married Sophia Lawrence, daughter of John and Elizabeth (Wilcoxson) Lawrence. She was born 27 January 1765 and died April 1842. [Andrews, Alfred-Andrews Memorial 1872 62-166] Both Sophia and Jonathan Andrus, their unmarried son, Azariah, and their daughter Julia are buried in Hop Meadow Cemetery in Simsbury, Connecticut. Their graves are near the fence adjoining the Public Library. [Simsbury Cemetery Records; Personal Observation]

Jonathan was a farmer in the west part of

BETSEY ANDRUS BOOTH
(Daughter of Jonathan Andrus, Revolutionary War Soldier)

Simsbury and participated in the Revolutionary War. (See Appendix) Several deeds of sale and purchase of land by Jonathan are on record, but he applied for a pension in his old age as did Sophia after his death. [Records at National Archives, Washington, D.C.]

Children of JONATHAN and SOPHIA (LAWRENCE) ANDRUS:

i Jonathan, Jr. born 9 April 1785; married Charlotte Montague
7 ii Betsey
iii Sophia born 21 April 1789; married Norman Mills

Elijah purchased from the Holland Land co., Dec. 27, 1828, a farm near Sheridan, N. Y., on which he lived, labored and died. The place is called "the old DeLand home" referred to as occupied by descendants.

Elijah "served in the War of 1812," and "fought the Indians below Buffalo in the State Militia." This branch of the family "were all members of the Methodist Church." The conversion, under the administration of the Methodist Bishop Charles Kingsley, of Elijah's daughter Mary appears in the family records.

Elijah and both of his companions were bur. in Sheridan, N. Y., Cem. On his tombstone is the inscription, "Retire, my friend; Dry up your tears; Here I shall lie till Christ appears." The monument to Sally Jones says, "A virtuous tauqua Co.," p. 282 says that he "always took the greatest interest in whatever tended to improve methods in farming or the successful management of our public schools." His Bible has been mentioned elsewhere as having furnished facts about the family of Obadiah and Martha.

London Township was organized by Legislative Council, July 13, 1832, embracing all that part of Raisinville Township comprised in Town 5 South, in Ranges 7 and 8 East, and all that part of Summerfield Township comprised in Town 5 South, Range 6 East. (Territorial Laws, Volume 3, page 921; Laws of 1832, page 15). This did not include the west tier of sections in Town 5 South, Range 7 East.

The west tier of sections in Town 5 South, Range 7 East, was set off from Summerfield Township, March 7, 1834 and attached to London Township. (Territorial Laws, Volume 3, page 1276).

Whiteford Township was organized by Legislative Council, March 7, 1834, embracing Towns 8 and 9 South in Range 6 East, set off from Erie Township, and "all that part of Town 2 of U. S. Reservation in Monroe County." (Territorial Laws, Volume 3, page 1276) When the Michigan-Ohio boundary dispute was settled, part of this township was incorporated in Lucas County, Ohio.

Died on the 13th inst., Rush Spaulding, aged about 50 years. Mr. Spaulding was taken sick suddenly about three months ago. It was then thought he must die, but in a short time he seemed a little better, and some hopes of his recovery were entertained. Again he began to sink. His disease was peculiar, having no pain, but gradually wasting away. He leaves a wife and large family.

W. L. Smith Dies.

William L. Smith died at his home in Williamsfield, Monday, at the advanced age of nearly 90 years, and had he lived until July 20th of this year would have been a nonagenarian. His death was due to his great age, which had been prolonged by his habits of industry temperance and wholesome living. Indeed his is the first death in the family since he is survived by his wife, sons, Levi F., Fern, of Simons and Williamsfield, and a daughter, Mrs. Albert Cole, of Kinsman. Mr. Smith had been sick but one week, and his death came to him literally as a pleasant sleep. In his life he had seen almost a century's growth of this nation, beginning when John Quincy Adams was president of the United States. It is difficult for the younger generations to realize the space of ninety years, and to him who has lived through that period, in as useful and upright a manner in which Mr. Smith had, the satisfaction that follows as a reward to him and his posterity must be sweet indeed.

The funeral was held from the house Tuesday, Rev. McEwan, of the M. E. church, conducting the services. Mr. Smith had been a member of the M. E. church many years.

In his death the community has lost an esteemed and honored citizen.

CARD OF THANKS:—It is with heartfelt gratitude that we extend to all the friends and neighbors our thanks for their kindness and helpfulness during the illness and death of our beloved husband and father. Words can only fully express our meaning, but so far as we are thus able, we assure you that your kind acts will not be forgotten.

W. L. Smith Dies.

William L. Smith died, at his home in [illegible], Monday, at the advanced age of nearly 90 years, and had he lived until July 26th of this year would have been a nonagenarian. His death was due to his great age, which had been prolonged by his habits of industry, temperance and wholesome living. Although his is the first death in the family circle he is survived by his wife, sons Lewis C., [illegible], of [illegible] and William Smith, and a daughter, Mrs. [illegible] Cook, of [illegible]. Mr. Smith had been sick but one week, and his death came to him quietly as a pleasant sleep. In his life he had seen almost a century's growth of this nation, beginning when John Quincy Adams was president of the United States. It is difficult for the younger generations to realize the span of ninety years, and to him who has lived through that period, in so useful and upright a manner in which Mr. Smith had, the satisfaction that follows as a reward to him and his posterity must be sweet indeed.

PAINFUL PILES

Relieve the Pain and Itching Almost Instantly

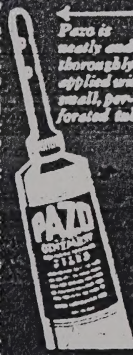
Simple Piles can hurt excruciatingly. They can itch maddeningly. Tormenting you day and night, they can almost drive you mad.

To relieve pain and itching of simple Piles just apply amazing Pazo Ointment. Pazo does a real job. It almost instantly allays the pain and itching. It brings quick relief and enables you to walk and sleep in comfort.

Pazo works because it is three fold in effect. Here is what it does. First, it soothes the sore and inflamed parts. That relieves the pain and itching. Second, it lubricates the affected parts. That softens the hardened and dried parts and helps prevent cracking and soreness. Third, it has an astringent action that tends to reduce the swollen parts and, in many cases, check bleeding.

Try Pazo and see the grand results you get. Note the relief from the maddening pain and itching. If Pazo does not give satisfactory relief, see a doctor as your condition may be such as to require a physician's services.

Get Pazo Ointment at any drugstore at small cost. (It also comes in suppository form for those who prefer.) -Advertisement



Pazo is neatly and thoroughly applied with small, perforated tube

HALL DE LAND, 73, DIES SUDDENLY

Lambertville Native, Former Supervisor, Is Striccken Early Today

JUN 20 1939

Special to the Evening News

LAMBERTVILLE, June 20—Hall Loren DeLand died suddenly from a heart attack at 5:30 this morning at his home near Lambertville on the Ottawa Lake road. He was 73 years of age and had suffered several heart attacks during the past several weeks. This morning he had gone to the barn where he was stricken and was found a few minutes later by his wife.

Mr. DeLand was born in Lambertville May 1, 1866, and had lived at the same place his entire life. He married Miss Carrie Hoffman April 14, 1901. He was the oldest member of the I.O.O.F. lodge at Lambertville, a member of Eva Rebekah lodge and the Lambertville school board. He served three terms as supervisor of Bedford township and was a member of the Lambertville Methodist church.

He leaves besides his wife, a son, Dr. Charles DeLand, federal veterinarian, of Alpena; two daughters, Mrs. Orville Dohm of Erie and Mrs. Philip Lathrop of Jackson; a brother, Elmer of Adrian; one niece and one nephew.

The body has been removed to the Farnham funeral home and will be returned to the residence tomorrow. Funeral arrangements have not been made.

He had no wagons for transportation through the Black Swamp, but carried provisions and other supplies on horseback. In the winter they might have used sleds, but had no harness, except what he constructed of green hides, which answered while it remained dry. At times the horses would give out, when the men took their places and drew the loads, sometimes for 30 miles. Colonel Todd referred to the battle of the Thames, and stated that after the capture of General Proctor's forces, they found the General was missing; when he (Col. T.) and Major Wood, with a Company of men, started in pursuit. The men giving out, these two officers pushed on and finally overtook Proctor's carriage, but found its occupant had escaped on the back of one of the horses. In the carriage they found all of Proctor's papers, including the speech of Tecumseh, the great Indian leader, in which he severely rebuked his British associate commanders for allowing the Indians to murder helpless prisoners, saying among other things: "I conquer to save; but you to murder." Again, he said, "Father, listen! In the Revolutionary War, we tried to assist you; but our Great Father was thrown on his back. In the last War we could not think of defending men who lived like groundhogs." Colonel Todd regarded the War of 1812, as but the continuation of the War of the Revolution—the British made peace; but their Indian allies did not. The defeat of Dudley was due to inconsiderate valor. General Harrison had said, the misfortune of Kentuckians was, that "they were too brave." Colonel Todd in strong terms thanked the people of the Maumee Valley for the grand reception given the Veterans, concluding with the words: "We thank you, and thank you, and thank you!" At the conclusion of his remarks, he exhibited the flag which was carried at Fort Meigs, and which bore the rents made in it by British balls. From the Fort, the Veterans crossed the River to Maumee City, where preparations had been made for them. A dinner was served at the American House, after which the visitors and citizens assembled in a grove, where Mr. George W. Reynolds presided; prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Swan; and an address delivered by Rev. Mr. Richardson, responded to by Colonel Todd. Remarks were made by Dr. Gaither of Cincinnati, Lieutenant-Governor J. C. Lee and M. R. Waite, the latter stating that Mrs. Harriet O. Hall, daughter of Major William Oliver, one of Harrison's trusted subordinates, had deputed him to invite her father's comrades to accept her hospitality at the Oliver House, Toledo, which they did, Mrs. Hall receiving them in the hotel parlors, and invited them to a dinner prepared for them. Mr. Menifee was at Winchester's defeat on the River Raisin; was made prisoner and as such lay in the water at night, and through a change of weather, his clothes were fastened by ice thus formed. He had been crippled ever since by a wound then received at River Raisin. Peter Navarre, of Toledo, one of Harrison's best scouts, was at the Oliver House, as was also Captain David Wilkison, who, though not a soldier or a sailor, in 1815 assisted in removing the cannon and other stores from Fort Meigs to Detroit.

June 15, 1871, 19 survivors of the River Raisin Massacre of 1812, met at Monroe, Mich., where a banquet was provided for them, at which Mayor Redfield presided, and General Custer and others made addresses. The names and ages of the Veterans present were as follows: Joseph B. Nadeau, 77 years; Peter Navarre, 82; Robert F. Navarre, 80; Joseph Guyer, 88; George Younglover, 77; Bronson French, 82; Francis Lazane, 82; David Van Pelt, 89; William Walters, 88; Joseph Foulke, 80; Fred. Bouroff, 100 years, 7 months; Jean DeChovin, 77; John Clappen, 76; Charles Hixon, 76; Henry Mason, 79; Hall DeLand, 75; Thomas Whelpley, 73; Louis Jacobs, 96; John Beseau, 80. Peter and Robert F. Navarre continued to reside in this section until their deaths. Frank Bouroff, the centenarian, was born in Pennsylvania, 1770. The united ages of the group were 1,158 years, the average being nearly 90.

July 4th, 1872, was celebrated at Monroe, Mich., the chief incident of the occasion being the presence of 117 Veterans of Harrison's Army, serving at Fort Meigs and elsewhere in this section, during the war of 1812. A large gathering of people were present. General George Spaulding was Marshal of the day. Among the prominent officials and civilians present, were Governor Baldwin; Judges Christiancy, Campbell, Cooley, and Patchin, of Michigan; General Leslie Combs of Kentucky, General G. A. Custer, and General S. L. Williams, then nearly 91 years old, himself

As successors in possession of the soil, it is desirable that the white race have a correct understanding of the nature and true character of the Red Man whom they have dispossessed. The prevailing sentiment now is that of depreciation and contempt for those who not many years ago held this entire region in undisputed control and use. Wherever the facts of the case are known, however, this estimate of the aborigines does not prevail. The main ground for it, is found in the greatly changed habits and character of these people, which followed and are attributable to their association with the Whites. It is the testimony of nearly all intelligent persons familiar with their condition on the advent of the obtruding race, that they bore very little of the spirit and traits which followed such advent. It is a most suggestive fact in this connection, that among the first steps taken in their work by the Moravian Missionaries at Gnadenhutten, Shoenbrun and Salem, in Eastern Ohio, was to petition the Territorial Legislature to prohibit the introduction of intoxicating liquors among the people whom they had come to civilize and christianize. For a time, this plan was successful; but as the Whites increased in numbers, and the Indians in resources, the law became inoperative, and the result, as in all other cases of unrestrained traffic of that sort, was intemperance, idleness and debauchery; the outcome—directly traceable to that one cause—being the loss of influence by the Missionaries over the natives and the abandonment of the settlements and of efforts for their improvement. The work of demoralization thus begun by the heartless cupidity of the alleged "superior race," continued, with increasing results, as long as Indians were permitted to remain on the soil

In 1955 the Stone Quarry School was used to house a single grade for the first time in its history. Mrs. Mary Miller was the teacher, followed by John Huffman, Joseph Thomas and Wayne Greve. In October of 1961 the Stone Quarry School building was purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Ellery Lennard at a public auction. It was converted to a residence by Jack Banfield when he purchased it in 1963. During the next ten years it underwent additional remodeling and now has a bright red exterior with white posts. In May of 1973 it became the residence of the Paul Zoll family. Although the appearance has changed to a large extent, it is still one of the old landmarks in the community.

The following teachers taught at Stone Quarry School District No. 1 from 1903 until the consolidation in 1955.

1903 - 1905 Eleanor Bischoff
1905 - 1907 Montie Paquette

De Land (Deland) School District No. 1 Fr.

In 1859 only thirty-two students attended the DeLand School which is located on Summerfield Road just north of M-151. Two teachers, one male and one female, were hired at a total cost of $82.00. One was to teach the summer term and the other the winter term; the total time school was in session was seven months. The names of these teachers are not known, but Miles L. Smith, whose address was Lambertville, Michigan, served as school board director, a position he held until 1869. School Inspector Willson, in his annual report to the State Department of Education, described the school as "a middling good house" in 1864. The school district continued to grow, and in 1876 when F. E. Pomeroy was DeLand School Director, there were 66 eligible students between the ages of 5 and 20, forty-one of whom attended school for the usual period of seven months. By now, the male teacher who taught the winter term was earning $180.00 for four months and the female teacher made $68.00 for three months of teaching in the summer.

In 1875 Henry M. DeLand sold an additional parcel of land containing 44/160 of an acre to the DeLand School Board for $1.00. Although no records were found to verify the sale of the original parcel of land to the school by Mr. DeLand or any member of his family, it can be assumed that the DeLand School obtained its name from the DeLand family.

The DeLand School continued its steady growth throughout the years until it reached an enrollment high of 91 pupils about 1940. At that time, three overlapping sessions of school were taught by one teacher in a single room. Eight grades and a kindergarten class had staggered hours of eight o'clock to noon, ten o'clock to two-thirty, and noon to four-thirty. For these man-killing hours, the teacher received $190.00 per month.

Shortly after this period, during the early 1940's, the school board of Deland School began working toward consolidation with the Bedford School System, an event which took place in 1946. For a number of years the school was used by Bedford for elementary classes, and the Iott School Number 10 Fractional was moved to the site and joined to the Deland building, doubling the space. Presently the building is being used for Bedford Schools Adult Education Classes.

Bartlett Mannor, George Cox, Robert S. Janney, Urban Cummins, Fred C. Schmidt, Charles Wilkerson, Ludy Knaggs, Ray O. DeLand and Ross LaPointe were members of the early school boards of DeLand School, some of whom served for periods up to fifteen years.

Teachers at the DeLand School between 1903 and 1946 include the following:

1903 - 1904 Joseph Jelley
1904 - 1905 Iva Leonard
1905 - 1907 David S. Yape
1907 - 1908 Cora Green
1908 - 1911 Mable Hartz
1911 - 1913 June B. Winslow*

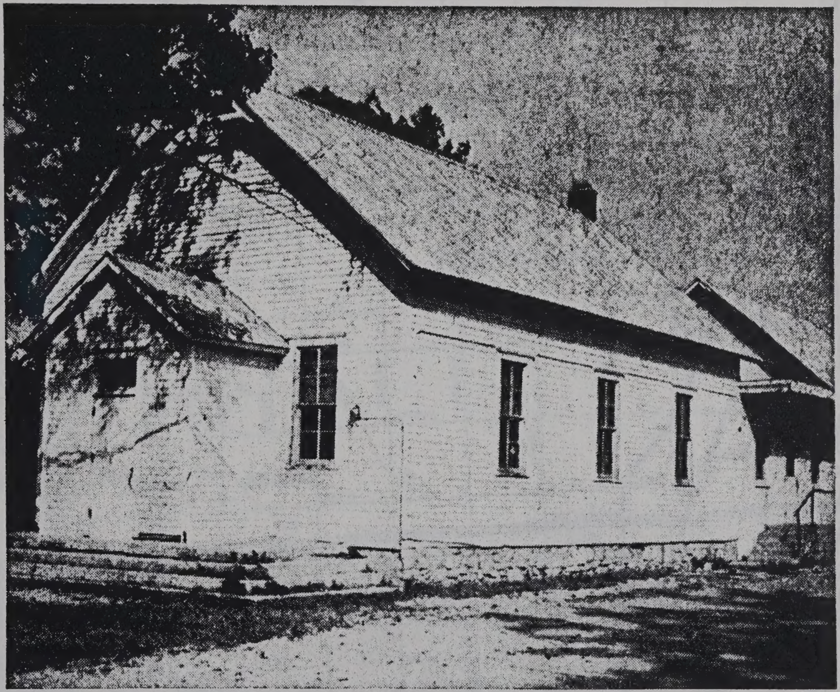
Iott School District No. 10 Fr.

The school district in Whiteford Township with the shortest known history was the Iott School identified as School District No. 10 Fractional. Located on Rauch Road near Bacon Rod, the school district was in existence a little over 30 years. It was started because a group of parents were concerned that their children were required to walk long distances (some over two miles) to attend school at either Ferris or DeLand Schools. They circulated petitions to build a school closer to their homes and the County School Commissioner, James G. Kelley, approved it: The newly organized school district then purchased one half an acre from William Venia and he donated another half acre for the school site. It is not recorded why the name Iott was chosen for the school rather than Venia or Freier when the land was purchased from the Venia family and Henry Freier changed from the DeLand School Board to the newly-formed Iott School Board. Speculation is that it was due to the large number of students whose last name was Iott in the school.

While the date of the first class in the Iott School was 1913-1914, the date of the last class was not available. It became part of the Bedford Consolidated Schools in 1946 and few records were available. The building was moved to the site of the DeLand School where it was joined to that building at the rear. It is currently being used as an Adult Education Center by the Bedford Schools.



This is the DeLand School Building with the Iott School attached to the rear. These two buildings which were attached with a vestibule entrance between, were used for elementary classes by the Bedford Schools until 1968. Currently they are being used for Adult Education Classes.

A. McCollum, agricultural implements.

Also one basket factory, three drug stores, one produce market, two meat markets, three wagon and smith shops, one harness shop, two shoe shops, one barber shop, one jewelry store, one bazaar, two millinery shops, three physicians, one dentist.

There is a good two-story brick school-house, one Evangelical and Free Methodist frame church, and one Methodist Episcopal brick church.

The village has a good uniformed brass band, a Grand Army post, and an Ancient Order United Workmen lodge.

The Carleton Opera House and Edwards Hall furnish ample accommodations for public assemblies, and Matthews race course for the lovers of fast stock.

BEDFORD TOWNSHIP.

The first actual settler in the township of Bedford was probably Benjamin Sulier, who located where he still lives on section 35, in town 8, range 7 east, in the year 1828. Several other Frenchmen located in the vicinity soon afterwards, but at exactly what time it is impossible at this late date to determine. The first American resident within the limits of the township is believed to have been a Mr. Owen, who located in 1820 on what is known as the old Silas Smith farm, on section 5, town 9 south, of range 6 east. It will be remembered that General Harrison marched from Fort Meigs to Frenchtown in 1813, and having artillery necessitated bridging the streams. He with his army crossed Half-Way Creek, on the above mentioned tract, and we suppose that Owen followed the road as far from the settlement on the Maumee and Ten-Mile Creek as he thought safe, as Indians were at that time very numerous and not to be trusted too far.

After Mr. Owen, a man named Sibley occupied the house, and often sold whisky to the Indians. One evening they came for whisky, and not being able to obtain any, made an assault upon Sibley with their knives, wounding him severely, and left him for dead. His wife ran for help to the nearest neighbors, four miles distant, probably at Tremainesville, and when she returned with the help her husband was missing. After a diligent search he was found under the bridge at Half-Way Creek. This terminated his dealing with the Indians in whisky, also his residence in Bedford. In 1830 or 1831, Silas Smith purchased the farm, and it is still owned by his descendants.

Bedford township was, prior to 1836, a part of the township of Erie, and was then called West Erie, but in 1836 was organized as the town of Bedford. There were at that time fifty or sixty residents, including several Frenchmen. Of the American residents who were heads of families at that time, the following only are left in the township, viz.: Levi Lewis, Lucas Adams, Theophilus Osgood, and Edmund Rawson. William P. Hubbell, one of the number, died during the past year.

The first township meeting was held at the house of Levi Lewis on the second day of May, 1836. Twenty-five votes were polled, and the following named officers, twenty-eight in number, were elected, viz.: Supervisor, William Dunbar, who was a man very highly esteemed, and subsequently represented Monroe county in our State legislature and was for a number of years the sheriff of Monroe county. Late in life removed to the township of Monroe, where he resided until his death, which occurred August 2, 1870, leaving a widow and one son, Edwin Dunbar, who occupies the homestead farm, and like his father has enjoyed the confidence of his fellow-citizens. He has frequently been elected to offices of trust, and is the present representative of our county in the State legislature. Theophilus Osgood was elected clerk. John Glass, Henry Mason, Nathan G. Watkins, Samson Vrooman, justices of the peace. Commissioners of highways were Stephen Bradford, William Filkins and Ebenezer Thornton. Elisha B. Hitchcock, Jacob Cronkite and Joel Hitchins, assessors. For collector, Charles F. W. Rawson. For directors of the poor, John Lambert, and Thomas Sammons. School commissioners, John Lambert, Levi Lewis and Jackson Hoag. For constables, Charles F. W. Rawson, John M. Gilman and Oliver S. Keene. School inspectors, D. P. Hurlburt, Cyrus Wing and Obediah De Land. For fence viewers, Ebenezer Thornton and William P. Hubbell; and for poundmaster, Joshua Merrills.

Dear Helen,

Received group sheets from albert Myers which enabled me to check other resources. as a result, I have found the ancestry of Grace Smith who married Matthew Williams, Jr. I am sending 2 books on loan to albert; "Mayflower Families through 5 Generation", Vol. 2, and "Library of Cape Cod Hist. + Gen.", No. 32 + 33. I have asked him to share with you the copies he makes.

Grace Smith is definately descended from Ralph Smith of Eastham, but I couldn't learn if Daniel Smith (m. Mary Young) was a son or Grandson of Ralph. I checked Virkus to no avail. But my guess is he's a son of Ralph.
In the meantime, I've enclosed a rough chart.

Hope this helps,
Sincerely,
Yvonne McCord

Dear Helen,

I started to figure out what pages to copy for you from the Deland Genealogy and realized that there were so many pages you might want that it would probably be much easier to send the book to you so you could copy anything you want. Please return the book when you are through using it.

The descendants of John & Hannah (Smith) Deland are on the following pages: 102-108, 134, 135, 209, 307, 369-371, 395. Some other pages you may be interested in are: 23-26, 32, 33, 37, 38, 43, 49-51, 54, 55, 57, 59, 60, 75-80, 89-91, as well as the descendants of John's father, grandfather & great-grandfather. I just didn't know whether or not you wanted all of this.

My children are descended from John^{1}, the brother of your Phillip^{1}.

You may already have this info, but I checked the 1790 Ma. census and found in Sandisfield Levi Smith (1 head, 3 females) & next to his name, Amasa Smith, Eleazer Smith, Elisha Smith; also in Sandisfield, Obadiah Deland. The Sangers were David of Framingham, Samuel, John , Samuel, Jr. & Asa of Sherburn, David, William & John of Watertown, and William of Templeton.

Sincerely,

Yvonne

Dear Mr. Myers,

I saw your ad in Nexus and have checked my book "The Deland Family in America", by Frederick Deland Leete (1943). I hope the following will be helpful. If you would like additional Deland info on any of the children, etc. let me know. I Didn't copy the children and other info in the book on Philip^1, Paul^2, Obadiah^3 Deland.

pp. 104, 105:"JOHN^4 DELAND - b. Sandisfield, Ma. Jan.4, 1775; d. Sept. 19, 1848; m. Jan. 15, 1795 Hannah Smith (b. Sept. 12, 1776; d. July 23, 1847).

Land records in Batavia, N.Y. show that John and Hannah Deland, of Paris, Oneida Co., N.Y., bought property in Bethany, Genesee Co., N.Y., 110 acres in the "Holland Purchase".

Albion, N.Y. courthouse land records show that John was purchaser of land on the north side of E. State St., Albion, in 1835. This may refer to his son, John, Jr."

CHILDREN OF JOHN & HANNAH (SMITH) DELAND:

LUCY - b. Oct. 23, 1795; d. Oct. 24, 1796

Research for a fee

Society will [illegible] or arrange for any genealogical research to be done in Iosco County, MI. Society will do limited research; fee is $6.00 per hour plus expenses.

If you have a larger research job which our volunteers can not accomplish, the society will recommend a genealogical researcher who we feel is qualified to do the research. In this situation you and the researcher will make your own arrangements.

To get started, send a list of the research you want done and a $15.00 check made out to the Huron Shore Genealogical Society. You will get a written report with an itemized statement, and any money not used will be returned.

Copies Made

Copies of articles or prints from glass negatives can be made.
Our material is scattered across the county in several locations, and the following prices includes the time involved, pro-rated transportation cost, and postage. Prices shown below is for the first copy of each item requested. Duplicate copies made at the same time: paper items are $0.50 each, and duplicate prints from a glass negative are $5.00 each.

Deaths

MRS. CARRIE K. DE LAND

(Special to The Evening News)

LAMBERTVILLE, April 1—Mrs. Carrie Katherine DeLand, aged 66 years, died Saturday evening at her Lambertville home. She had suffered a stroke Thursday.

Born in Blissfield September 7, 1879, she had resided here for 46 years. She was married to Hall DeLand April 14, 1901, the Rev. Mr. Silverthorne performing the ceremony at Temperance. Mr. DeLand died June 20, 1939. She was a member of the Eva Rebekah Lodge, the Methodist Church and the Educational Club.

Survivors are two daughters, Mrs. Bernica Dohm of Erie and Mrs. May Lathrop of Jackson; a son Charles of Lambertville; three brothers, Charles Hoffman of Palmyra, Daniel Hoffman of Dundee and Conrad Hoffman of Petersburg; six sisters, Mrs. Charles Dusseau of Lenawee Junction, Mrs. Katherine Bezaire of Wixom, Mrs. Earl Dentel of Adrian, Mrs. Albert Adler of Monroe, Mrs. William Hachman of Temperance and Mrs. Robert Kirtland of Adrian; and five grandchildren.

Friends may call at the Farnham funeral home at Temperance. Services will be held Tuesday at 2 p.m. from the Lambertville Methodist Church with the Rev. Asa Compton and the Rev. Lorne Carter of Dundee officiating. Interment will be in Lambertville cemetery. Grave services will be in charge of the Eva Rebekah Lodge and pallbearers will be members of the I.O.O.F. Lodge.

Lambertville.

Correspondence of the Commercial,

DIED.—At her residence near this place April 20, Mrs. Laura DeLand, in the 81st year of her age. Funeral at the M. E. Church, Monday, at two o'clock, Sermon by the Rev. Sellick, text 23rd psalm 4th verse. Mrs. DeLand was born in the State of Vermont, April 3d, 1799, and moved to the State of New York in early girlhood. She married Hall DeLand, Nov. 22nd, 1816, with whom she lived happily for a period of 63 years. She came to Bedford 40 years ago. She has been for many years a consistent member of the Methodist Church, was loved and revered by all who knew her, and although aged and infirm, will be greatly missed in the community.

Lambertville.

DIED.—Saturday, Aug. 31st, Father Hall DeLand, in his 83rd year. Father DeLand was born in the State of Massachusetts. He, with his family, moved from Genessee county, N. Y., and settled on the farm, occupied by him at the time of his death, over 40 years ago. His wife, who still survives him, is nearly 80 years old, and they had been married 63 years, have had seven children, four of whom are still living. Father DeLand was a member of the Wesleyan Church, a man of great activity and energy. His funeral was held at his late residence on Monday Sept. 2nd, and was largely attended. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Erdman, the Evangelist of the Wesleyan Church of Coldwater, Mich.

Matilda A. beloved wife of Frederick DeLand, died Feb. 4th. She was born in Lancaster county Pennsylvania, May 25th, 1831. Her parents moved to Ida township, Mich., in her youth, and from thence they moved to Bedford township, and on July 6th, 1855 she was united in marriage to Frederick DeLand, from this union five children were born, three sons and two daughters. The daughters having preceded her to that home from whence no traveler returns. The husband and three sons, Judd, Elmer and Hall, have the sympathy of the community in the loss of a loving wife and mother. She was a member of the Evangelical church for forty years and a charter member of the Lambertville Woman's Christian Temperance Union. The funeral took place on the 6th at the M. E. church at Lambertville, Rev. J. W. Tolley conducted the same.

The following is from the Woman's W. C. T. U:

Whereas, our beloved sister, Matilda A. DeLand has been called to the higher life. Therefore, we the officers and members of Lambertville W. C. T. U. desire to express our appreciation of the heart and character of one who for twenty-three years was a standard bearer and faithful worker in the sacred cause that binds our hearts in one. Devoted in spirit, gracious in presence, kindly in speech, she was for many years a help and inspiration in our meetings. In the onward march of the past twenty-three years there was no path so rough but she trod it unfalteringly, and no call of duty went unheeded, for hers was a spirit and a life that rejoiced in doing the Master's will. She has gone from among us, but the eye of faith pieces the unseen and beholds her radiant in the mansions of the King. The memory of her life so beautiful and fragrant, with good and true service will always be a rich heritage to us. We grieve with those who in the home are desolate over the loss of their best beloved, but to our souls come the word of Christ. "I am the resurrection and the life. He that believeth on me, though he were dead yet shall he live."

Matthew Short graduated from Harvard in 1707 and from then until 1731 he was teaching school and studying divinity, October 11,1711 the town of Atteboro being met for choosing an Orthodox Minister of good conversation , to dispence the word of God to us, choose Mr. Short. He was to have 50 pounds yearly, for six years. Half in money and the rest in beef,pork,butter or cheese at current prices. Difficulties arose and on May 13,1713 he asked to be dismissed,and the town voted to grant his desire. From Atteboro, he moved to Saco,Maine - then a part of Mass. where he was preaching in 1716 and at the same time acting as Chaplin at his Majestys Fleet at Winter Haven. On March 28,1723, he received a call to the church of East Precintc of Norton where he was presented with ten acres of land which came to be known as the "Short Place". The minestry on the whole was quiet and lasted eight years until his death in 1731. His will bequathed his home, one hundred acres of land and a valuable library. His wife married second to Jeremiah Freeman,by which marriage she regained her maiden name.
